South Koreans Claim Reds Make War Preparations

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean government proclaimed a state of emergency today, charging war preparations by North Korea.

President Chung Hee Park declared South Korea must "reposture" its defense arrangements in view of Communist China's admission to the United Nations and uncertainty over the level of future American support.

A government proclamation informed South Koreans their constitutional freedoms may be restricted and "social unrest that risks the national security will not be tolerated."

The major opposition party, the New Democrats, took issue with Park. A party spokesman

Senate Votes On Powell Bid Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lewis F. Powell Jr. is sure to get Senate approval today, perhaps by unanimous vote, to succeed the late Hugo L. Black on the Supreme Court.

The real controversy, over the nomination of Asst. Atty. Gen. William H. Rehnquist to the court, lies ahead.

Republican Leader Hugh Scott said the Senate will confirm him, too, and forecast an overwhelming vote.

But timing of that vote is another question, since opponents of Rehnquist have not agreed to any limit on their debate against him.

The Powell confirmation vote was set for 4 p.m. "I don't think a single senator is likely to vote against Powell," said Scott.

Indeed, Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., who will miss the roll call, set out to find an opponent in hopes of arranging a pair. That is an arrangement under which opposing senators agree that both will skip a vote, and the absentees cancel each other. Percy said he couldn't find anybody to provide the other half of the pair.

Cambodians Lose Town Near Capital

Civilians Flee As Northeastern Front Collapses

PHNOM PENH (AP) — North Vietnamese troops dealt the Cambodian Army another setback today, forcing it to retreat from a district town only 16 miles northwest of Phnom Penh. At least 50 Cambodians were killed or wounded.

About 150 troops fled from Bat Doying in the darkness before dawn after two days of fierce fighting.

About 50 of the survivors were reported to have reached safety at the nearby outpost of Phnom Baset.

Last week the Cambodian army's northeast front collapsed, sending thousands of troops and civilians fleeing north to the besieged provincial capital of Kompong Thom. The North Vietnamese were left in control of 25 miles of Highway 6.

Reports during the weekend said hundreds of the fleeing soldiers and civilians were killed during the retreat. The army abandoned three more hill positions during the weekend and withdrew the rest of its surviving force in the sector into Kompong Thom.

In Saigon, it was learned that U.S. Navy planes have nearly doubled attacks against the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos since the dry season began. The aim of the air campaign is to reduce the movement of North Vietnamese reinforcements and war materials into Cambodia and South Vietnam.

The Pacific Fleet's two most powerful carriers, the nuclear-powered Enterprise and the Constellation, are sending more than 100 planes a day against the supply trail. Military sources anticipate an increase in North Vietnamese attacks on the aerial ridges, and more U.S. attacks on North Vietnam in retaliation.

Report 23 Pakistani Tanks Destroyed

India Claims War Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pakistani jets attacked Bombay, India's largest city, United News of India reported today.

It said the attack came just after nightfall. Earlier in the day, India recognized the Bangla Desh rebels as the legal government of East Pakistan and claimed victory in a major tank battle on West Pakistan's border.

Bombay, a city of 5.6 million, is on India's west coast about 500 miles south of West Pakistan.

United News of India said Indian anti-aircraft guns and coastal batteries opened fire as the Pakistani planes approached Bombay.

The dispatch, apparently filed to New Delhi while the attack was under way, gave no idea of the extent of the raid.

Air raid warnings sounded over western India after sundown as Indian radar picked up sightings of what appeared to be a massive air strike. New Delhi dispatches reported.

In another development, Pakistan broke diplomatic relations with India in retaliation to its recognition of Bangla Desh.

A spokesman for India's Foreign Ministry in New Delhi said earlier the Indian government had no plans to sever diplomatic ties with Pakistan.

India has supported the Bangla Desh rebels since March and has gained backing for this stand from the Soviet Union.

There was no immediate word from Moscow on whether the Soviet Union would follow India in recognizing the rebels. Premier Alexei N. Kosygin said Sunday the question of Kremlin recognition had not been considered.

The Soviet news agency Tass carried a New Delhi dispatch reporting that India had done so and noted that Prime Minister Indira Gandhi had told her Parliament that recognition signifies an important turning point in the history of national liberation movements.

The Pakistanis claimed their forces had made a general advance in all sectors along the border between India and West Pakistan and had crossed the Tavi River in the Jammu sector of Kashmir.

Pakistan reported earlier that it had seized 20 Indian border posts in Kashmir.

The tank battle began Saturday night when the Pakistanis sent two brigades of infantry and an armored regiment against Indian defensive positions in southern Kashmir near the West Pakistani border, an Indian spokesman in New Delhi said.

He said the battle raged throughout the weekend and that 23 Chinese-built T59 tanks were destroyed by the Indian forces. "Our losses were minor in the fighting," the spokesman added.

He said in East Pakistan Indian forces "are making significant advances and we have captured some territory north-east of Sylhet and south of

Soviets Block U.N. Action On War

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP) — The United States and other nations are considering asking the U.N. General Assembly to intercede in the India-Pakistan war following two Soviet vetoes of Security Council resolutions calling for a cease-fire and withdrawal of the opposing forces.

The 106th and 107th vetoes cast by the Russians in U.N. history came in weekend meetings at which Chinese Ambassador Huang Hua charged Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik with filibustering to give India time to advance into Pakistan and Malik called Huang "an imperialist jester."

The council scheduled another meeting this afternoon to take up another resolution calling for a cease-fire but no withdrawal. But as of Sunday night, the U.S. government had instructed Ambassador George Bush not to vote for anything that omitted the call for withdrawal of forces.

The assembly's 1965 "Uniting for Peace" resolution provides for an emergency session on the vote of any nine of the 15 council members whenever a veto prevents the council's acting in the interest of peace.

Somali Ambassador Abdullahi Abdi Farah said African, Asian and Latin American members of the council were considering this course in the belief that a big majority in the assembly would vote for a cease-fire and withdrawal.

Bush, asked whether he would go to the assembly with the issue, replied, "I would say it's a live option."

"We're keeping all our options open."

Bush had just come from the council meeting at which a Soviet veto killed an eight-nation resolution calling on India and Pakistan for an immediate cease-fire and withdrawal and also calling for an early political solution in East Pakistan.

The vote was the same as on a U.S. cease-fire-and-withdrawal motion early Sunday: 11 for, the Soviet Union and Poland opposed and Britain and France abstaining. Both resolutions failed because the Soviet vote constituted a veto.

Between those two votes, the council rejected a Soviet resolution in effect putting the blame for the situation on Pakistan. It called for "a political settlement in East Pakistan which would inevitably result in a cessation of hostilities" and demanded that Pakistani forces in East Pakistan "cease all acts of violence," meaning that they stop all action against the Bengali rebels.

The vote on that one was the Soviet Union and Poland in favor, China opposed and the other 12 council members abstaining.

NEW YORK (AP) — Egyptian President Anwar Sadat

says he has twice promised to send home all Soviet missile crews in Egypt and to restore full diplomatic relations with the United States as soon as Israel carried out the first phase of a withdrawal from the Sinai Peninsula.

Sadat charges that the Nixon administration misled him into thinking that the United States could in turn wrest major negotiating concessions from Israel. None materialized, Sadat notes in an interview in the current Newsweek magazine, adding,

"We are now back to square one."

In the interview with Newsweek senior editor Arnold Borchgrave, Sadat says he first made the promise to send Soviet missile crews home in talks with Secretary of State William P. Rogers in Cairo last May.

The pledge was reaffirmed during a July meeting with Michael Stern, the head of the State Department's Egyptian Affairs Desk, Sadat says, and quotes Stern as having told him that President Nixon had decided the United States would "now take an active role and cease to play the part of mailman between the two sides."

"Then we had a 70-day black-out from America," Sadat continues. "Absolutely nothing from anyone."

Meanwhile, in separate television interviews Sunday, Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir and Egypt's foreign minister, Mahmoud Riad, disagreed sharply on conditions under which the stalled peace efforts could get under way.

Riad insisted that Israel must agree in advance to withdraw from all the Egyptian territory she occupied in 1967 before starting talks.

"We do not commit ourselves to anything without negotiations. We have one precondition: No conditions," Mrs. Meir said.

On another point, Riad denied that Egypt had threatened to renew hostilities after Dec. 31 if there was no solution. Sadat had said recently that 1971 would be a "year of decision."

Mrs. Meir was questioned on the NBC TV-radio program "Meet the Press," while Riad was interviewed on CBS's "Face the Nation."

Remap Board Meet Called By Governor For Dec. 20

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan has called the five-man apportionment board back into a session Dec. 20 at 10 a. m. to consider a new plan for redrawing Ohio's legislative districts.

The board will meet one day before a deadline for a second plan set by a three-judge federal court in Cleveland. The court ruled the first plan unconstitutional, saying it violated the one-man-one-vote edict of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Gilligan's notices of the second meeting were delivered by highway patrolmen. Republican Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said he received his notice Friday.

Gilligan is chairman of the apportionment board. Other members include Rep. Robert Manning, R-94 Akron, Senate Minority Leader Anthony O.

Calabrese, D-22 Cleveland, and Democratic Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson.

The apportionment board on Sept. 30 showed through a Democratic-authored plan with little debate. It then adjourned.

Later discovering it had left out several wards, precincts, and occasionally even cities, Democrats attempted to correct its mistakes in required legal advertisements. Republicans balked, saying the plan the board approved was not the one being advertised.

The three-judge court ruled that omitting certain areas amounted to violating the one-man-one-vote procedure of the U.S. Supreme Court.

The new plan is expected to be basically the same as the old one, with minor boundary changes expected to take care of leftover areas.

Average Annual Cost $215 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, with an eye on the political scale, is weighing whether to create a national food bank stocked with about $1.5 billion worth of vital grains at an average annual storage cost of $215 million.

The Nixon administration, taking its own approach toward easing farm problems, has joined the American Farm Bureau in opposing the Democratic-backed plan that would set up a strategic reserve supply of up to 300 million bushels of wheat and 25 million bushels of feed grains.

Agriculture specialists on Capitol Hill said they expected a close call for the measure in the House Rules Committee, which moved today toward its decision on whether to dispatch the legislation to the floor for action.

The bill, which emerged from the House Agriculture Committee on a 21-10 vote, has the backing of the Farmers Union, the National Farmers Organization, the National Grange, National Association of Wheat Growers, National Corn Growers Association and the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Maneuvering on the bill could include attempts to tack onto it a measure which cleared the Agriculture Committee last Thursday by 19 to 6. This would provide that when the government announced wheat and feed-grain programs that add to reserve stocks, the minimum loan level or rate available to producers during that crop year would be hiked by at least 25 per cent.

Less School Money Seen By Essex

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Superintendent of Public Instruction Martin Essex said today the increase of 24,549 children on the rolls of Aid to Dependent Children programs over the past year will mean less money to disadvantaged school children next year.

Although Ohio's share of federal Title I funds for the 1971-2 school year showed an increase of nearly $500,000 over last year's $40,791.49 allocation, the increase in ADC children will result in a lower amount per pupil and reduced funds for 455 school districts, the superintendent said.

South Koreans Claim Reds Make War Preparations

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean government proclaimed a state of emergency today, charging war preparations by North Korea.

President Chung Hee Park declared South Korea must "reposture" its defense arrangements in view of Communist China's admission to the United Nations and uncertainty over the level of future American support.

A government proclamation informed South Koreans their constitutional freedoms may be restricted and "social unrest that risks the national security will not be tolerated."

said the president's aim appeared to be the security of his government rather than the security of the nation. If the situation was serious enough to warrant emergency measures, the spokesman added, it should have been discussed in the National Assembly.

Park said North Korea has increased infiltration of armed agents to South Korea and has carried out a massive military buildup of more than 2.5 million troops, including a regular military force of 500,000 men, a militia of 1.4 million and 700,000 Red youth guards.

He noted that Communist China as a U.N. member is supporting North Korea's demands for dissolution of the United Nations Command in Korea and the U.N. Commission for the Unification and Rehabilitation of Korea.

"We must foresee thorny trails that might come in the path of our national security," he said.

As for South Korea's major ally, Park said: "The United States is running into a difficult position to allow us to depend on or ask for the same level of support for our national security as before."

The talking by the American Congress over the foreign aid bill is a warning to countries receiving aid to assume more responsibility for their national security requirements, the president said.

8 Injured In Blast

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Eight persons were injured early today when molten iron spilled from a ladle, came in contact with water and exploded at the Dayton Malleable Iron Co.

Assistant plant manager George Brown described the blast as "an accident."

Six of the injured were taken to Lawrence General Hospital and two others walked in with burns. One of the injured was transferred to a Columbus hospital, 120 miles north of here.

The 7:30 a.m. explosion enlarged an opening in a brick partition between the room where it occurred and another room. There was some damage, probably minor, to heavy machinery near the explosion.

The plant makes castings for heavy industry. The blast came as the plant's 1,200 United Steel Workers Union members were returning to work after a three-week strike was settled with the signing of a new three-year contract.

Big-Hearted Officer Often Spends Own Cash On Needy

By BOB INGLE — Associated Press Writer — BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Harry L. Jones is the kind of guy you'd give a stranger his last dollar. And does, frequently.

He's a policeman who, for the last 17 years on duty, has seen life at its worst. But he's not discouraged. He says he thinks people just need a little help.

Last week, for instance, Jones answered a routine report of family trouble. He said he found a woman and five ragged children—three girls and two boys, ages 10 years to 19 months—huddled in an attempt to keep warm in a freezing mist.

Inside the house, he said, was the children's father, drunk. Earlier that day the woman had taken four of her husband's last $11 and sent one of her children to the store for groceries. When the child returned, Jones said she told him, the man snatched the food away, stomped it to bits.

"I kicked the door open," Jones said. "Those folks were living there with just wall-to-wall floor—I mean no furniture at all, no food."

Jones said he radioed headquarters he was going to the grocery store, then spent the only money he had—$6—on food for the family.

"None of that comes as a surprise to me," said Mrs. Jones, who has been married to the big-hearted Birmingham native for 18 of his 43 years.

"I recall one occasion he called home one night and asked if we had any money in the bank. I told him we had a little bit. He said he had found a young woman who had no place to go, so he paid her room rent at the YMCA for a week with a $30 check."

"I had to go out and borrow the money the next day to cover the check," she said.

Recalling his experience last week, Jones says, "I was really touched by that family. I'm going to work with the man ... try to help him get rehabilitated. I've talked to him about Alcoholics Anonymous and he seems acceptable to it."

"The Fraternal Order of Police is going to see that the kids have a Christmas this year."

"You should have seen the eyes of those kids when we mentioned Santa Claus to them ... they lit up like diamonds."

The Joneses have two daughters, Teri, 17, and Carol, 13. When they outgrow their clothes, their father always finds someone who needs them.

Remap Board Meet Called By Governor For Dec. 20

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan has called the five-man apportionment board back into a session Dec. 20 at 10 a.m. to consider a new plan for redrawing Ohio's legislative districts.

The board will meet one day before a deadline for a second plan set by a three-judge federal court in Cleveland. The court ruled the first plan unconstitutional, saying it violated the one-man-one-vote edict of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Gilligan's notices of the second meeting were delivered by highway patrolmen. Republican Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said he received his notice Friday.

Gilligan is chairman of the apportionment board. Other members include Rep. Robert Manning, R-94 Akron. Senate Minority Leader Anthony O.

The apportionment board on Sept. 30 shovled through a Democratic-authored plan with little debate. It then adjourned.

Later discovering it had left out several wards, precincts, and occasionally even cities, Democrats attempted to correct its mistakes in required legal advertisements. Republicans balked, saying the plan the board approved was not the one being advertised.

The three-judge court ruled that omitting certain areas amounted to violating the one-man-one-vote procedure of the U.S. Supreme Court.

The new plan is expected to be basically the same as the old one, with minor boundary changes expected to take care of leftout areas.

Man Pinned In Wreckage, Dies

Roger Lee Stewart, 18, of Wayneburg, Pa., died 2 a.m. Monday when he was pinned under the wreckage of a tractor-trailer rig driven by his brother on Route 22, in Fairfield County one-half mile east of the county-line road.

Stewart's brother, John Ray Stewart, 28, Jeannette, Pa., is listed in "fair" condition at the Berger Hospital emergency room, pending transfer to a Pennsylvania hospital.

According to a report issued by Cpt. Robinson, Fairfield County Sheriff's Department, John Stewart lost control of his semi rig carrying sheep and hogs as he was traveling east on a rain slicked Route 22, just past the Pickaway County line.

The cab of the rig went off the right side of the roadway and flipped on its side. Stewart claims the accident was caused when he applied his air brakes and they locked.

Roger Stewart, riding in the sleeper compartment, was thrown from the cab when it fell to its side and was pinned to the pavement by the cab and trailer at their coupling.

He was pronounced dead on the scene by the Fairfield County coroner.

Several of the animals being transported died as a result of the accident. The remainder are being penned at Bowling Stock Yards.

No charges have been filed against Stewart according to Cpt. Robinson, "pending further investigation."

Pickaway County Deputy J. Phillip Brown was called to the scene of the wreck by Richard Stuckey, Route 1, Stoutsville, who spotted the initial wreckage.

He aided the Fairfield County department in their investigation and helped divert traffic to Route 188 until wreckage could be cleared about two hours later.

President, Money Advisers Hold White House Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon summoned his four chief monetary experts to a White House meeting today to talk about dollar problems abroad and inflation at home in his first meeting with them in a month.

The economic meeting follows Nixon's three-day weekend at Key Biscayne, Fla., where aides said the President made some key decisions on his fiscal 1973 budget. However, there were no disclosures on what the decisions were.

Nixon returned to the White House Sunday evening. Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the President continued his budget discussions on the plane ride from Florida with John Ehrlichman, his chief domestic adviser.

The last time Nixon met with his four top economic advisers was Oct. 28, but since then, there have been numerous developments in Phase 2 of the economic stabilization efforts at home and balance-of-trade and dollar values abroad.

The foursome is made up of Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, Chairman Paul McCracken of the Council of Economic Advisers, Chairman Arthur Burns of the Federal Reserve Board and Director George Shultz of the Office of Management and Budget.

Aides said that during his stay in Florida the President kept in touch by telephone with the situation in India and Pakistan.

The President, the aides said, personally ordered Secretary of State William P. Rogers to take a cease-fire-and-withdrawal resolution on the Indian-Pakistani fighting to the United Nations after getting reports from a crisis-study group of high-level officials in the White House situation room.

KSU Trial Jury Picks Set Today

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — Mary Helen Nicholas, 21, a former Kent State University student is the first woman among the Kent 25 to go on trial in connection with the May, 1970 disturbances at Kent.

Jury selection starts today in Portage County Common Pleas Court for the trial of Miss Nicholas. She was indicted for allegedly interfering with firemen during the disorders.

Miss Nicholas, who was a freshman at the time of the May 1-4, 1970 disturbances, is the fourth of the 25 indicted by a special state grand jury to come to trial.

The first, Jerry Rupe, was convicted of interfering with firemen at the May 2, 1970 fire that destroyed an ROTC building on the Kent Campus. The charge is a misdemeanor.

Charges were dismissed against the second defendant, Peter Bliet, 23, at the request of state attorneys. The third defendant, Larry Shub, 20, pleaded guilty Wednesday to first-degree riot before his trial got under way.

Court will be in session only three days this week because of a statewide meeting of judges in Columbus Thursday and Friday.

Police Checking Weekend Thefts

Circleville police are investigating three thefts in the city Sunday.

The Humble Service Station, E. Main St., was entered and an undetermined amount of cash taken.

Clara Fuller, 347 E. Main St., told police someone entered her house and took two checks Sunday afternoon while she was taking a nap.

A tool box and tools valued at $100 were taken from an auto belonging to William Haddock, 210 Logan St.

Ashville Teens In Accident

Two Ashville teenagers were among the injured in a two-car collision Saturday evening on Route 23 at the junction with Shepherd Road.

The car driven by Jody Harris, 17, was northbound on the highway. Miss Harris' passenger was Susan Pettibone, 15, also of Ashville.

Forty-nine year old Muncie, Ind. woman, Wanda J. Porfido and her passenger, Emmet Tosh, were headed south on Route 23 when they decided to return north. They turned at the crossover at Shepherd Rd. and into the path of the Harris auto, the impact forcing the Porfido auto into a fence along the rest area.

Miss Harris and Tosh received minor visible injuries and Miss Pettibone complained of injuries. Tosh was not treated.

The Porfido woman was cited by Highway Patrolmen to appear in city court here on a charge of failure to yield.

Truck Kills Deer
Larry L. Robertson, 20, Lucasville, killed a deer with his pickup truck 7:50 p.m. Saturday on Route 762, just west of Route 23.

The deer jumped in front of the truck, according to Sheriff's Deputy John Best, who investigated the incident.

Robertson's truck sustained heavy front end damage.

Tax Deadlock Break Seen By GOP Solons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Republican-dominated Ohio Legislature has hinted that the nine-month deadlock over a permanent budget-tax measure is headed for a break-up this week "one way or the other."

A 5 to 3 1/2 per cent personal income tax bill is anticipated for a floor vote later in the week, while a sales tax bill will be kept in reserve.

An expenditure table calling for $750 million in new revenue over two years is expected to come from conferees on the budget-tax bill. Gilligan had requested $2.1 billion, and the last income tax bill, would have given him $1.011 billion. It was defeated in the Senate 17-15.

Sen. Howard Cook, R-1 Toledo, chairman of the conference committee, said he wanted to slice at least $100 million from the previous tax bill, mostly in welfare.

But even with a 9,000 to 7,000 per month Aid to Dependent Children caseload reduction, expenditures are expected to shoot well over the old $873.9 million welfare budget.

Since July, the state has been operating on eight consecutive interim budgets. The overall budget for the last biennium was $6.2 billion, while a new one will be approximately $8 billion.

Information for a one-cent sales tax hike was requested put together over the weekend by Sen. Stanley Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati.

If other teams fail, Aronoff said it would be something to fall back on. It would provide new education money, but authorize no increase in other spending.

Budget - tax conferees will meet again Tuesday following a 10 a.m. floor session in the House. The Senate has a floor session scheduled Monday at 8 p.m.

House Panel To Slash U.N. Aid In Half, Passman Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A key House subcommittee is about to slash America's United Nations contribution by more than half, scrapping the entire 1972 U.S. $100-million share of the U.N.'s major foreign-aid program.

Chairman Otto E. Passman, D-La., confirmed $100 million was cut by his House foreign operations appropriations subcommittee in a reported $2.3-billion U.S. foreign-aid money bill headed for subcommittee approval today.

The foreign-aid appropriation is scheduled for a House vote Tuesday or Wednesday as an end run if necessary around the House-Senate deadlock over a bill to reauthorize foreign aid.

Passman said the $100 million cut from President Nixon's request for $193 million in U.S. contributions to the United Nations was not made in retaliation for Nationalist China's expulsion.

He said the money, the U.S. ante for the U.N. Development Program (UNDP), was made because the agency has gained a $343-million surplus it says it wants to use for a "one-time burst of additional activity."

"Everybody wants an extra burst of activity," stormed Passman. "And that's why this country is $350 billion in debt. They make me so damn mad."

The impact on UNDP should America withhold its $100 million is not clear. The agency provides technical economic development assistance to underdeveloped countries.

The world agency anticipated more than $250 million in contributions next year and planned to begin using $193 million of the $343-million surplus for program expansion. The other $150 million of the surplus is to go into a reserve fund.

Passman said he opposes the 1972 U.S. contribution only because of the UNDP's surplus and said he would favor renewed U.S. funding in future years.

The UNDP gained the $343-million surplus when it switched from fully funding its programs at the time of their approval to a system of funding them on a year-to-year basis.

India . . .

Comilla. The two cities are key supply centers for Pakistan's army in the east. Sylhet is 123 miles northeast of Dacca, the provincial capital. Comilla is 50 miles southeast of Dacca.

Earlier, Indian Defense Secretary K. B. Lal reported Indian forces on the eastern border of East Pakistan had captured the key rail and communications center of Akhaura, 60 miles east of Dacca. But Pakistan said the attack on Akhaura had been repulsed and insisted its lines along East Pakistan's western borders with India remained firm. It added, however, that "the enemy is dominating" some of East Pakistan.

The head of India's military operations in East Pakistan, Maj. Gen. J. F. R. Jacob, told a news conference in Calcutta today that there had been heavy fighting around the towns of Jessore in the southwest, Hilli in the northwest, and Akhaura.

Jacob said 317 Pakistanis have been killed, 199 wounded and 426 taken prisoner in province-wide fighting so far. He said in Akhaura a battalion of Pakistan's crack frontier force had been wiped out.

Jacob described Indian casualties as "light to moderate," but declined to give figures. He also praised the determination of the Pakistani troops and appealed to them to surrender.

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Need reported from the East Pakistani town of Darsana that India poured regiments of troops, tanks and guns across the border and that they met only desultory resistance from steadily retreating Pakistani forces.

Indian military spokesmen also reported their troops advancing as much as 10 miles into West Pakistan at a point west of Jaisalmer, which is in the Indian state of Rajasthan. But they had not launched a major land invasion of the west.

Meanwhile, Pakistani spokesmen in Rawalpindi reported their forces had taken 20 Indian outposts along the border running through the disputed state of Kashmir and inflicted 300 Indian casualties.

Pakistani warplanes continued strafing attacks against Indian cities, including Agra in central India, site of the Taj Mahal. The Indian government ordered the 318-year-old marble monument draped in jute so the gleaming white pile could not guide Pakistani pilots on night raids on a nearby air base.

The Indian spokesman said the Pakistanis continued to bomb Indian military airfields, but "the damage is very light and we have suffered no losses."

One Pakistani B57 was shot down during an attack on the airfield at Amritsar, he said, bringing the total of Pakistani planes claimed by India to 48. Indian losses remained at 17, the spokesman added.

The Pakistani air force admitted the loss of only two of its planes in the past two days and said 46 Indian planes had been downed.

The Indian spokesman said New Delhi's warplanes flew scores of sorties against military airfields in West Pakistan and troop concentrations and railway centers in both East and West Pakistan.

"All our aircraft returned safely," he said.

Radio Pakistan accused the Indians of strafing civilian targets in Lahore. Lyallpur and Peshawar, killing seven persons and injuring at least 16. India denied this.

The radio report also said Indian planes attacked a passenger train near Narowal, killing five persons and injuring 20.

New Delhi said Indian air force planes and Indian ships were continuing around-the-clock bombing of Chittagong harbor, the largest in East Pakistan, and advised ships of neutral nations to clear the port.

The State Department in Washington said Indian warplanes bombed and strafed the U.S. merchant ship Buckeye State on Saturday off Chittagong, and that another, the Expedito, was intercepted by Indian vessels Sunday on the high seas off Madras.

A department spokesman said the captain and two crewmen of the Buckeye State were injured.

Daley Lines Up Candidates To Oppose Percy, Ogilvie

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley has picked U.S. Rep. Roman C. Pucinski of Chicago to challenge Sen. Charles H. Percy in the 1972 election.

Daley announced at a news conference Sunday the endorsements of the party's slating subcommittee. The full slate-making committee was expected to approve those endorsements today.

Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, as expected, was slated to challenge Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie. Although all slated candidates must run in the March 21 primary, only Simon will have opposition.

Daley's selection of Pucinski, 52, a former newspaper reporter with 14 years' seniority in Congress, was an attempt to balance the top of the ticket with a Cook County candidate. Simon is from Troy in Southern Illinois.

During most of his years in Congress Pucinski has returned to Chicago each weekend and distributed statements to local newspapers and broadcasters on virtually any subject under discussion by the House.

He has been a loyal Daley Democrat, rising to defend police for their action during the street demonstrations at the time of the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Pucinski, who had been a sponsor of a law aimed at heading off interstate travel to promote disorders, said at the time of the demonstrations that they provided "an excellent opportunity to prosecute the first case under the new law enacted by Congress, which prohibits crossing a state line to incite a riot."

Like most Democratic congressmen from Chicago, Pucinski owes his allegiance to Daley and acts on issues close to Daley in a conservative fashion. But he joins congressional liberal on many national issues, particularly in the fields of labor and education.

Simon, 43, apparently clinched the endorsement for governor several weeks ago when he lined up support of 87 of the state's 101 Democratic county chairmen.

CROP Hunger Walk Pledges Collected At Sunday Meeting

Trinity Lutheran Parish House was the collection point for CROP contributions. Students who participated in the Hunger Walk Nov. 21 arrived 2 p.m. Sunday to turn in pledges to the finance committee.

Members of the finance committee are Shirley Smith, Ashville; J. C. Timberlake and R. N. Phillips of Circleville.

While the contributions were being tallied and the cards checked, David Allardye, rector of St. Philip's Church, congratulated the group. He reported that CROP headquarters in Columbus was overjoyed with the success of the walk and that Pickaway County had done "the outstanding job in the state."

Allardye felt the venture was so successful and the group worked so well together that further projects of a local nature should be explored.

The "Waste Watchers" program was suggested by Allardye. The program is presently underway in Columbus. It is a glass collecting and recycling program which aids the community and also brings in a small revenue.

Profits could be reinvested in other worthwhile projects, Allardye suggested. The group decided to send representatives to a meeting Jan. 9 to discuss possible activities.

Shirley Smith announced the following results at the end of the afternoon:

Cindy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook, was the outstanding single participant in the walk with $190 in pledges; the Calvary United Methodist Church had the largest number of hikers with 31 students and eight adults walking; a total of $3,404.60 was taken in by 43 young people still to be heard from.

Those unable to attend this meeting are urged to send their pledges to Shirley Smith, 173 Cromley St., Ashville. Anyone who was not contacted during the drive and who wish to contribute may also mail their checks, payable to CROP, to Mrs. Smith.

Queen Sells Apple Crop For Yuletide

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, who has asked for a big pay boost because of the rising costs of being a monarch, is now selling apples to help make ends meet.

Newspaper advertisements are urging the British public to visit her 20,000-acre royal estate at Sandringham, Norfolk, and buy her apples for Christmas.

Thirty-pound boxes of the apples are being offered directly to the public for $3.75.

"Christmas Apples," the ads says. "Visit Sandringham and collect your own."

The queen, whose private fortune is a secret, would get a new salary of $2.45 million, double her present pay, under a proposal before Parliament.

She is paid an annual public salary out of taxes, in addition to income from her private investments.

If other teams fail, Aronoff said it would be something to fall back on. It would provide new education money, but authorize no increase in other spending.

Budget-tax conferees will meet again Tuesday following a 10 a.m. floor session in the House. The Senate has a floor session scheduled Monday at 8 p.m.

Home Entered By Burglars

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is investigating another house burglary.

Victim was Ralph L. Keaton, Route 1, New Holland, who told investigating Deputy Warren Straley thieves had made a search of his home between 10:15 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Saturday.

They gained access to the dwelling through an unlocked garage door and then forced a kitchen door.

No estimate of merchandise stolen has been compiled as of Monday morning.

House Panel To Slash U.N. Aid In Half, Passman Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A key House subcommittee is about to slash America's United Nations contribution by more than half, scrapping the entire 1972 U.S. $100-million share of the U.N.'s major foreign-aid program.

Chairman Otto E. Passman, D-La., confirmed $100 million was cut by his House foreign operations appropriations subcommittee in a reported $2.8-billion U.S. foreign-aid money bill headed for subcommittee approval today.

The foreign-aid appropriation is scheduled for a House vote Tuesday or Wednesday as an end run if necessary around the House-Senate deadlock over a bill to reauthorize foreign aid.

Passman said the $100 million cut from President Nixon's request for $183 million in U.S. contributions to the United Nations was not made in retaliation for Nationalist China's expulsion.

He said the money, the U.S. ante for the U.N. Development Program (UNDP), was made because the agency has gained a $343-million surplus it says it wants to use for a "one-time burst of additional activity."

India ...

Comilla." The two cities are key supply centers for Pakistan's army in the east. Sylhet is 123 miles northeast of Dacca, the provincial capital. Comilla is 50 miles southeast of Dacca.

Earlier, Indian Defense Secretary K. B. Lal reported Indian forces on the eastern border of East Pakistan had captured the key rail and communications center of Akhaura, 60 miles east of Dacca. But Pakistan said the attack on Akhaura had been repulsed and insisted its lines along East Pakistan's western borders with India remained firm. It added, however, that "the enemy is dominating" some of East Pakistan.

The head of India's military operations in East Pakistan, Maj. Gen. J. F. R. Jacob, told a news conference in Calcutta today that there had been heavy fighting around the towns of Jessore in the southwest, Hilli in the northwest, and Akhaura.

Jacob said 317 Pakistanis have been killed, 199 wounded and 426 taken prisoner in province-wide fighting so far. He said in Akhaura a battalion of Pakistan's crack frontier force had been wiped out.

Jacob described Indian casualties as "light to moderate," but declined to give figures. He also praised the determination of the Pakistani troops and appealed to them to surrender.

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Neel reported from the East Pakistani town of Daranga that India poured regiments of troops, tanks and guns across the border and that they met only desultory resistance from steadily retreating Pakistani forces.

Indian military spokesmen also reported their troops advancing as much as 10 miles into West Pakistan at a point west of Jaisalmer, which is in the Indian state of Rajasthan. But they had not launched a major land invasion of the west.

Meanwhile, Pakistani spokesmen in Rawalpindi reported their forces had taken 20 Indian outposts along the border running through the disputed state of Kashmir and inflicted 300 Indian casualties.

Pakistani warplanes continued strafing attacks against Indian cities, including Agra in central India, site of the Taj Mahal. The Indian government ordered the 318-year-old marble monument draped in jute so the gleaming white pile could not guide Pakistani pilots on night raids on a nearby air base.

The Indian spokesman said the Pakistanis continued to bomb Indian military airfields, but "the damage is very light and we have suffered no losses."

One Pakistani B57 was shot down during an attack on the airfield at Amritsar, he said, bringing the total of Pakistani planes claimed by India to 48. Indian losses remained at 17, the spokesman added.

The Pakistani air force admitted the loss of only two of its planes in the past two days and said 46 Indian planes had been downed.

The Indian spokesman said New Delhi's warplanes flew scores of sorties against military airfields in West Pakistan and troop concentrations and railway centers in both East and West Pakistan.

"All our aircraft returned safely," he said.

Radio Pakistan accused the Indians of strafing civilian targets in Lahore, Lyallpur and Peshawar, killing seven persons and injuring at least 16. India denied this.

The radio report also said Indian planes attacked a passenger train near Narowal, killing five persons and injuring 20.

New Delhi said Indian air force planes and Indian ships were continuing around-the-clock bombing of Chittagong harbor, the largest in East Pakistan, and advised ships of neutral nations to clear the port.

The State Department in Washington said Indian warplanes bombed and strafed the U.S. merchant ship Buckley State on Saturday off Chittagong, and that another, the Expedito, was intercepted by Indian vessels Sunday on the high seas off Madras.

A department spokesman said the captain and two crewmen of the Buckley State were injured.

Daley Lines Up Candidates To Oppose Percy, Ogilvie

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley has picked U.S. Rep. Roman C. Pucinski of Chicago to challenge Sen. Charles H. Percy in the 1972 election.

Daley announced at a news conference Sunday the endorsement of the party's slating subcommittee. The full slate-making committee was expected to approve those endorsements today.

Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, as expected, was slated to challenge Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie. Although all slated candidates must run in the March 21 primary, only Simon will have opposition.

Daley's selection of Pucinski, 52, a former newspaper reporter with 14 years' seniority in Congress, was an attempt to balance the top of the ticket with a Cook County candidate. Simon is from Troy in Southern Illinois.

During most of his years in Congress Pucinski has returned to Chicago each weekend and distributed statements to local newspapers and broadcasters on virtually any subject under discussion by the House.

He has been a loyal Daley Democrat, rising to defend police for their action during the street demonstrations at the time of the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Pucinski, who had been a sponsor of a law aimed at heading off interstate travel to promote disorders, said at the time of the demonstrations that they provided "an excellent opportunity to prosecute the first case under the new law enacted by Congress, which prohibits crossing a state line to incite a riot."

Like most Democratic congressmen from Chicago, Pucinski owes his allegiance to Daley and acts on issues close to Daley in a conservative fashion. But he joins congressional liberal on many national issues, particularly in the fields of labor and education.

Simon, 43, apparently clinched the endorsement for governor several weeks ago when he lined up support of 87 of the state's 101 Democratic county chairmen.

CROP Hunger Walk Pledges Collected At Sunday Meeting

Trinity Lutheran Parish House was the collection point for CROP contributions. Students who participated in the Hunger Walk Nov. 21 arrived 2 p.m. Sunday to turn in pledges to the finance committee.

Members of the finance committee are Shirley Smith, Ashville; J. C. Timberlake and R. N. Phillips of Circleville.

While the contributions were being tallied and the cards checked, David Allardye, rector of St. Philip's Church, congratulated the group. He reported that CROP headquarters in Columbus was overjoyed with the success of the walk and that Pickaway County had done "the outstanding job in the state."

Allardye felt the venture was so successful and the group worked so well together that further projects of a local nature should be explored.

The "Waste Watchers" program was suggested by Allardye. The program is presently underway in Columbus. It is a glass collecting and recycling program which aids the community and also brings in a small revenue.

Profits could be reinvested in other worthwhile projects, Allardye suggested. The group decided to send representatives to a meeting Jan. 9 to discuss possible activities.

Shirley Smith announced the following results at the end of the afternoon:

Cindy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook, was the outstanding single participant in the walk with $190 in pledges; the Calvary United Methodist Church had the largest number of hikers with 31 students and eight adults walking; a total of $3,404.80 was taken in with 43 young people still to be heard from.

Stock List Gain Slips

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices, after shooting ahead at the start today, slipped back as mild profit taking developed. Trading was active.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, ahead more than 8 points earlier, was up 3.88 at 863.17 by noon. Advances on the New York Stock Exchange led declines by 3 to 1.

Analysts attributed the early runup to a cut by the Federal Reserve to 55 per cent from 65 per cent in its margin requirement after the close of trading Friday. The move reduced the required down payment on credit purchases of listed issues and about 500 over-the-counter issues.

The subsequent pullback reflected mild profit taking, analysts said. The Dow industrial average had climbed some 61 points in the previous sessions.

Gains ran through steels, mail order retail, farm implements, chemicals, airlines, tobaccos, building materials, and drugs. Rubber issues and motors were lower.

Queen Sells Apple Crop For Yuletide

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, who has asked for a big pay boost because of the rising costs of being a monarch, is now selling apples to help make ends meet.

Newspaper advertisements are urging the British public to visit her 20,000-acre royal estate at Sandringham, Norfolk, and buy her apples for Christmas.

Thirty-pound boxes of the apples are being offered directly to the public for $3.75.

"Christmas Apples," the ad says, "Visit Sandringham and collect your own."

English estates commonly seek additional income by selling produce grown on their land.

The queen, whose private fortune is a secret, would get a new salary of $2.45 million, double her present pay, under a proposal before Parliament.

She is paid an annual public salary out of taxes, in addition to income from her private investments.

Norris Quits Panel In Interest Conflict

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Rep. Alan Norris, R-50 Westerville, has resigned from a House Judiciary subcommittee writing legislation to adjudicate land title claims at state canal lakes because of a possible conflict of interest.

Norris said he made his decision to withdraw after having been questioned during committee work last week on his personal holdings at Buckeye Lake, one of the canal lakes in question.

Letters To Santa

Dear Sanat,
For Christmas I would like very much to have a basketball, sizzlers, racing track, a mini bike, some walkie talkies, a truck, pitch bike net, a football and some clothes.
I will leave you some milk and some cookies and for your reindeer I will leave some sugar cubes.

Your friend
Darry Hardy
Dear Santa,
My sister Becky, and I have been good all year and we would like to have these toys: country camper, talking Crissy, Malibu Barbie.
Good bye, Santa
210 Cedar Heights Rd.

Dear Santa,
My name is Anita May Bussert. I'm 9 years old. I have one brother and three sisters. I've been helping around the house and most of the time I have been good. Would you please bring me Bedable Francit and also a barbie upstairs and some barbie clothes and a barbie Country Camper. And if you would I would also like you to leave some toys for pour little girls and boys. I will leave you some milk and some of my mommy's home made cookies on our stand.

With love,
Anita
Route 1, Soutsville

Dear Santa Claus,
My name is Pamela Sue Bussert. I am 3 years old. I am a twin to Paula. We'll be 4 years old Dec. 19.

When you fill your sleigh this Christmas eve, please pack me a shopping Sheryl, a tea set, some granny boots and a house keeping set. Paula wants a Barbie Doll and anything else you think we would like.

Besides having a twin sister, I also have a brother, Gary, and two other sisters, Anita and Loretta. They want something for Christmas too!

I've been good most of the time, Mommy says. But I'll be even better from now on. I help mommy run the sweeper sometimes and fold the clothes for her. So please remember me.

I will leave some milk and cookies for you on the table. I wish I knew what your reindeer eat so I could leave them something. But I don't know. Could you share your cookies with them?

Love Pamela Sue Bussert
Route 1, Soutsville
Dear Santa Claus,

I am 7 years old. For Christmas I want a drum set, shooting gallery, and California 500 race set. I'll leave some cookies and milk.

Your friend,
LARRY BELZ
Route 1, Soutsville
Dear Santa Claus,

My name is Paula Bussert. I am 3 years old, but I'll be 4 years old Dec. 19. I have a twin sister whose name is Pamela. I also have a big brother and two big sisters.

My mommy says I've been pretty good. I sometimes make my bed and pick up my toys.

Please bring me some toys, especially a Barbie doll like my big sisters have. My twin sister wants some dishes so she can serve my mommy tea. We'd also like new table and chairs.

Don't forget my brother and sisters and bring my daddy a new coat. Mommy says to remember all the orphans with something nice too.

Thank you and take good care of yourself and Mrs. Santa. P.S. Please take time to eat the milk and cookies I set out.

Love,
Paula Bussert
Route 1, Soutsville
Dear Santa,

My name is Tammy. I am 6 years old. For Christmas I want a Bengal's Football suit, record player, doll and sock-em robots and anything else you want to bring me. Don't forget all the kids in hospitals and the other boys and girls.

I'll leave some cookies and milk for you. I've been pretty good.

Love,
Tammy Weffler

Letters To Santa

Dear Sanat,
For Christmas I would like very much to have a basketball, sizzlers, racing track, a mini bike, some walkie talkies, a truck, pitch bike net, a football and some clothes.
I will leave you some milk and some cookies and for your reindeer I will leave some sugar cubes.

Your friend
Darry Hardy
Dear Santa,
My sister Becky, and I have been good all year and we would like to have these toys: country camper, talking Crissy, Malibu Barbie.
Good bye, Santa

Dear Santa,
My name is Anita May Bussert. I'm 9 years old. I have one brother and three sisters. I've been helping around the house and most of the time I have been good. Would you please bring me Bedable Francit and also a barbie up-stairs and some barbie clothes and a barbie Country Camper. And if you would I would also like you to leave some toys for pour little girls and boys. I will leave you some milk and some of my mommy's home made cookies on our stand.
With love,
Anita
Route 1, Stoutsville

Dear Santa Claus,
My name is Pamela Sue Bussert. I am 2 years old. I am a twin to Paula. We'll be 4 years old Dec. 19.
When you fill your sleigh this Christmas eve, please pack me a shopping Sheryl, a tea set, some granny boots and a house keeping set. Paula wants a Barbie Doll and anything else you think we would like.

Besides having a twin sister, I also have a brother, Gary, and two other sisters, Anita and Loretta. They want something for Christmas too!
I've been good most of the time, Mommy says. But I'll be even better from now on. I help mommy run the sweeper sometimes and fold the clothes for her. So please remember me.

I will leave some milk and cookies for you on the table. I wish I knew what your reindeer eat so I could leave them something. But I don't know. Could you share your cookies with them?
Love Pamela Sue Bussert
Route 1, Stoutsville

Dear Santa Claus,
I am 7 years old. For Christmas I want a drum set, shooting gallery, and California 500 race set. I'll leave some cookies and milk.
Your friend,
Larry Belz
Route 1, Stoutsville

Dear Santa Claus,
My name is Paula Bussert. I am 3 years old, but I'll be 4 years old Dec. 19. I have a twin sister whose name is Pamela. I also have a big brother and two big sisters.
My mommy says I've been pretty good. I sometimes make my bed and pick up my toys.
Please bring me some toys, especially a Barbie doll like my big sisters have. My twin sister wants some dishes so she can serve my mommy tea. We'd also like new table and chairs.

Don't forget my brother and sisters and bring my daddy a new coat. Mommy says to remember all the orphans with something nice too.
Thank you and take good care of yourself and Mrs. Santa. P.S. Please take time to eat the milk and cookies I set out.

Love,
Tammy Weffler
Route 1, Stoutsville

Dear Santa,
I have tried to be a good girl. For the Christmas I want a cuddly baby doll, humpty dumpty game and Don't Cook Your Goose. Santa, I would like to know how you sleep with your long beard? Be sure to bring the other boys and girls a whole bunch of toys.
Your little friend,
Kathy Strous
Route 1, Stoutsville

Hi Santa Claus,
My mother is writing this letter for us.
Kitty is 7 years old and in the second grade. She wants a Ken doll, a Barbie and Ken car, Majorette outfit and a baton. Also a guitar if you have any.
Denise will be 3 years old Dec. 7. She would like to have a little bike, a timey tell doll, a majorette outfit and a doll stroller.
We will have some cookies and milk for you on the kitchen table.

Sure hope it snows so you can make it in your sleigh.
"Merry Christmas"
Kitty and Denise Barton

Dear Santa Claus,
My name is Janna Reeves. Please bring me a Timey Tell doll, supermarket shop, snow cone machine, zig zag zoom, lite bright, magnetic board.
Please bring my sister Angela a Belly Button Baby, baby buggy, games and books.
My brother Tommy wants a motorcycle, trucks, football outfit, tool set and clothes.
Please bring my bid brother Perry something nice and my friend, Tony Dye, some toys.

Thank you,
Janna Lynn Reeves
Route 1
Dear Santa,

My name is Michael Griffey and I'm 4 years old. I have a sister Michele, who isn't quite two years old. Since we can't write, Mommy is writing this letter for us. We'd like a lot of things for Christmas but will just tell you some of them. I'd like a bike with training wheels, some trucks and cars, a lincoln log set, and a big Tonka grader. Michele would like a doll, a set of dishes, table and chairs, a stove, and a stroller for her baby.
P.S. We'll leave hot chocolate and cookies for you.

Love,
Michael and Michele
Dear Santa Claus,

I would like a little doll to sleep with me when I go to bed and I would like a little truck. Also I would like a boy to come over some night.
To Santa Claus
From Kim Vanover
Route 1, Stoutsville

Dear Santa,
My name is Angela. I am 10 years old. I go to Jackson Twp. school. I help clean the house. May I have a colored Polaroid camera that takes ten minutes and a mystery date game, scrabble, records and a pants suit for Christmas? I will leave you some cookies and hot tea under the tree.
Your friend,
Angela Amann
Route 2
Dear Santa,

I want Busy Lizzie or a nice doll and a doll house. I want a doctor kit. I want a pretty dress to wear to Sunday school. Santa, please don't forget my friends and I need a record player with Elvis Presley records. Some bell bottoms would be nice. Just two more things and that's all — play guitar and I'll tell you uptown what else.

P.S. Our water man looks like you.

I love Santa,
Sammee Reed

Common Sense

"Few of us like to think about discipline. To the modern liberal mind, the word has an almost pornographic sound. But discipline is necessary to freedom. Though discipline and freedom seem antithetical, each without the other destroys itself."

These words, from the book, "Who Pushed Humpty Dumpty? Dilemmas in American Education Today," were written by a New York educator. Donald Barr, headmaster of the Dalton School in New York City, has some other choice observations about contemporary American society.

"A few years ago," he wrote, "adolescence was a phrase; then it became a profession; now it is a nationality."

And: "On the day that parents stop paying tuition for non-education, on the day they stop handing out allowances for strike funds and narcotics and reeking apartments, the student revolution — impatient with reason, violent against restraint, a holiday from self control — will wither away and the real learning that must precede intelligent social change will begin."

On schools: "Everywhere schools and colleges ignore and starve the youngster's desire to learn; they feed and exploit his desire to pass."

These are words to whet the appetite for discussion and thought, and that is not a bad lubricant.

Physician Growth

Congress at any moment may go off on another major health experiment which could undermine their efforts, but American medical schools are beginning to make some inroads in the physician shortage. Doctors are hardly a dime a dozen, but the ratio of physicians to the general population is improving.

In 1965, the ratio of M. D.'s stood at one for each 682 Americans. By the end of this year, estimates now indicate the 292,000 physicians of six years ago will have expanded to 344,000 or one for every 630 citizens.

That 17 per cent growth rate is about three times the increase for the population as a whole.

Much of it is coming from enlarged medical schools and in some cases a trend toward graduation in a shorter period of time. The influx of doctors from other parts of the world also has increased during this period.

The fly in the ointment, if there is one, is that a major new national health scheme could inundate hospitals and doctors' offices with a new avalanche of work, such as occurred when Medicare and Medicaid came into full force.

If that does happen, no expansion of physician training could hope to cope with the added demand for some years to come.

Endurance Gap

A University of Wisconsin study has confirmed the obvious: children who live in the center of a large city have less physical endurance than kids in other areas.

The reason is simple. They don't have the opportunity to exercise as much, especially in such endurance-building activities as running, bicycling or swimming.

Although the university's study centered on children aged 10 to 13 living in Milwaukee's central districts, the findings should be similar for other age groups and in other locations. Cities are not all the same, but they have the common characteristic of too little opportunity for kids to exercise.

Certainly other factors than exercise enter into fatigue. Diet, proper rest and good health practices are among them. Lack of exercise, especially in a growing body, is a defect which cannot be overcome simply by good eating, sleeping or health habits.

The muscles, heart and lungs must be exercised if they are to perform at maximum efficiency.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Life doesn't begin at 40, but you can get more relief from pain after that age. In fact, a study at five Veterans Administration hospitals showed that the older you get the better the results you receive from taking painkillers. Patients 80 years old obtained almost twice as much pain relief as those between 40 and 45.

Paper flood: One of the troubles with science today is that it is publishing so much about itself that even an expert has difficulty keeping up with his field. In 1971 Benjamin Franklin founded the first scientific journal in America, "Transactions of the American Philosophical Society," which is still in existence. Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The American Special of John Ford," CBS' special Sunday night, was a warm, sentimental tribute to a man who has been making western movies since 1917.

Ford's films have earned him four best director Oscars—curiously not one for any of his westerns. He appeared periodically through programs well laced with fight scenes from his films. A crusty individualist, Ford first was shown returning to Monument Valley—scene of many of his films—with John Wayne who worked with him first there in his 1938 "Stagecoach." James Stewart and Henry Fonda, two more of his favorite actors, recalled his style as a director in the course of a leisurely half-kidding interview.

It was a delightful hour. "Miss Teen-Age America," cute, dark-haired Colleen Fitzpatrick, was chosen Friday night in the usual tedious, 90-minute live coverage of the pageant finals. The girls are a bit younger than the "Miss America" contestants and the show's production values less opulent. But the show itself adheres rigidly to the torrid format. After all, you can sell more commercial time during a 90-minute spot than during an hour.

One had to feel sorry for most of the 55 finalists as they were introduced: A highly partisan audience in a Port Worth auditorium broke into applause only for girls from Texas. Singer John Davidson and Lucie Arnaz handled the hosting chores, their eyes firmly on the cue cards. The program will undoubtedly get a great rating: The public apparently enjoys trying to outguess the judges.

CBS announced that it would replace the late evening "Merv Griffin Show" with old feature movies, starting in mid-February, a move widely anticipated for months. Griffin months ago made a deal to move his program to Metromedia broadcasting for syndication when he wound up his CBS contract.

The move will take Merv out of head-on competition with Johnny Carson and Dick Cavett, and put him in a battle for stations alongside Mike Douglas and David Frost.

Pauline Frederick, NBC's veteran United Nations correspondent, was hurrying to a broadcast booth to report U.N. activity Saturday in connection with the India-Pakistan conflict when she tripped, fell and broke her kneecap. She was hospitalized and NBC expects she will be out of action for some weeks.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Every time I catch cold I develop a cold sore. It lasts long after the cold miseries have disappeared.

Is there any way to prevent this or to help cure it when it happens? Do antibiotics help?

Miss J. E., Ida.

Dear Miss E.: Cold sores, or herpes simplex, are caused by a virus. The virus may or may not be related to the virus that caused the cold itself.

Besides being unsightly, they often can be painful and the break in the lip, if neglected, may be secondarily infected by bacteria.

The antibiotics do not destroy viruses. Taking them by mouth, or even applying them locally with creams, lotions or ointments does not affect the virus responsible for cold sores.

For those who are susceptible it is often suggested that the lips be kept lubricated with a light mineral oil, or vaseline, as soon as a cold starts.

Cleansing tissues sometimes are made more attractive and whiter with bleaching agents. These, used too often and too roughly, can cause irritation of the skin around the mouth and may be a factor in inviting viral and germ infections by abrading the skin and the mucous membrane.

For this reason the lubrication is protective.

A new scientific approach to this problem is on the horizon and the experimental results already are encouraging.

By this new method a special dye will make the cold sore virus sensitive to light. It is said that the virus can then be killed by an ordinary fluorescent household light.

Is there any danger in piercing ears for earrings? My 12-year-old daughter insists on having her ears pierced.

Mrs. A. R., Ala.

Dear Mrs. R.: For centuries ears have been pierced with every conceivable kind of instrument.

It was Samuel Taylor Coleridge who observed, "Every reform, however necessary, will by weak minds be carried to an excess which will itself need reforming."

Aboriginal tribes have pierced ears with porcupine quills and even sharply ground pieces of flintstone.

No one has ever studied the frequency of infection from these techniques.

Generally, piercing the ears is a safe procedure. Yet there always is the possibility of infection, even in expert hands.

The pressure of peer groups makes youngsters plead for piercing ears. Often they will have it done, without parental permission, by people who sell the earrings. I disapprove of this.

Some states have legislated against the piercing of ears by non-professionals. Although I know of many cases that have been successfully done by these people, I must say that, as a doctor, I prefer that piercing of the ears be done under sterile conditions by a physician.

Ice Is Blamed In Pomeroy Slide

POMEROY, Ohio (AP) — A preliminary survey by Ohio University geologists indicates ice formed in cracks of the cliff caused a landslide Friday that sent tons of dirt and rocks tumbling on Second Avenue.

The geologists, who will assist Army Engineers in further study of the cliff, said the landslide apparently was caused by expansion of frozen water over a long period of time.

The slide caused an estimated $75,000 damage to the Pomeroy post office and less serious damage to three other buildings. No one was hurt.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Astronaut John Young, commander of the next Apollo mission to the moon, married the secretary of an aerospace contractor about a month ago, the space agency reports.

A toll bridge between Louisa, Ky., and Fort Gay, W. Va., has been bought by both states for an aggregate $300,000 and now is toll-free.

Who would have thought it?

The Nixon Administration took office with a personnel largely devoted to traditional freedoms, to fiscal and monetary conservatism, to maintaining U.S. military strength, and to forcing an "era of negotiation" with the Communist nations without sacrificing our friends. But now, three years later, we are confronted with the odd situation that everything save the promised policy of "Vietnamization" in Southeast Asia is operating in reverse.

Let's begin with economics. The chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, Paul McCracken, would have nothing to do with wage-and-price controls. Other economic advisers — Arthur Burns, Milton Friedman, George Schultz — were similarly enamored of competition in the marketplace. So what has happened? We have adopted the first peacetime "incomes policy" in our long history.

McCracken has, of course, resigned, but a good soldier to the last, he has done it without recriminations, which would lead one to believe that Mr. Nixon had a compelling reason for the decision of August 15. Nobody, however, has really spelled out the whys and wherefores of policies accepted by monetary and fiscal conservatives that have added $35 billion more or less to the national debt.

And how about our military position? We've had a tough man, Melvin Laird, in charge of National Defense. He has warned repeatedly that the Soviet Union is pulling ahead of us both in "deterrent" ability and in possible first strike capacity. The SALT talks were supposed to aim at keeping nuclear balances in line at less cost to the two superpowers, but as our negotiators have gone on talking the USSR has gone on building missiles, atomic submarines, anti-ballistic defenses and bombing planes while the U.S. has more or less marked time. How did this happen under the clear-eyed Secretary Melvin Laird?

As for the foreign policy aspects of national security, Laird has had a first-rate adviser, Warren Nutter, to tell him what degree of detente is compatible with maintaining a strong strategic position. Yet Henry Kissinger goes to Peking apparently without a thought about what the wooing of Red China may do to Japan, a nation of clever, studious and extremely well-disciplined people who will surely never permit themselves to be outflanked from the continent of Asia. Has there been any "dialogue" between the Messrs. Nutter and Kissinger? If there has been, what was said on both sides, and why?

We were going to reduce the welfare rolls and force able-bodied fathers to support their children, but the cost of welfare has nonetheless continued to rise. When HEW Secretary Elliot Richardson speaks for health programs, he presents the ideas of his Democratic predecessors in office. So cynics begin to wonder whether it makes the least difference whether a Republican or a Democratic Administration sits in Washington.

The fact is that the conservatives have had their chance and they muffed it. But can the blame be heaped on the head of Richard Nixon? Maybe we are simply playthings of vast tides that cannot be shifted without starting far back in the realms of educational philosophy and in fundamentally religious attitudes that impinge on so-called political science.

Could Nixon have protected the dollar by traditional means when billions had already gone abroad under the "assistance" policies of his predecessors? Could he have kept our armaments up to real parity with the Communists at a time that our educational and religious establishments were so imbued with guilt feelings about the possession of nuclear power? Finally, could an "incomes policy" have been avoided after 30 years of government favoritism to the big unions in legislation affecting collective bargaining?

Richard Nixon has been a first-term Sisyphus, rolling that great big stone up the mountain only to see it fall back on him. Could it be that the mountain gets its intractable steepness because our fundamental philosophical, educational and religious assumptions have been wrong for maybe more than a century? If this is so, it doesn't matter much who is in the White House; we will continue to do wrong because we can do no other as long as we listen to the same professors and the same priests.

Notice was made of the apple picking record of Harry Reinheld in the orchards of Grand View Fruit Farm owned by Alvin W. Barr of Stoutsville. On Oct. 22, Reinheld picked 323 bushels of apples in a ten hour day, beginning at 7 a.m. and finishing at 6 p.m. with an hour off at noon. Apple picking is not simple, but care is needed to avoid bruising the fruit.

A report made by Sheriff Charles Radcliff disclosed that 1,738 meals were served to 51 different prisoners in the county jail during November, 1931. Average cost of each meal was 47 cents, including cook help.

But compare those meal prices with Hanley's Wednesday special of a fried chicken dinner with dessert, only 50 cents.

A week's run of films showing at the Circle Theatre included "Ships of Hate" with Lloyd Hughes and Dorothy Sebastian in a thrilling talking picture of the high seas, Slim Summerville's newest comedy, "Sargies Playmate," "In the Line of Duty" with Noah Beery and Sue Carol and "Land of Wanted Men" with Bill Cody and Andy Shuford. Admission was 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Poster Bales, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales, E. Main St., earned the distinction of being the first Circleville youth to ever play football in the Yale Bowl. He is also the first to ever play on a team of the Big Three — Yale, Princeton and Harvard.

A new man, David L. Buchanan, of Carroll County, was employed to succeed Milton Cox as superintendent of Pickaway County Schools. Buchanan was 46 years old, a veteran of 27 years experience in public schools of Ohio, a father of three children, Presbyterian and 32nd degree Mason. Cox quit his post as superintendent to become deputy prohibition commissioner of Ohio, educating the citizenry on the value of Ohio's dry laws.

An ordinance was passed by city council Dec. 3, 1931 under suspension of rules reducing the amount of bond to be given by the city treasurer from $40,000 to $20,000. This action was taken since city money was then being deposited in local banks, relieving the treasurer of the large amount of money to handle.

Judge Joseph Adkins was ordered to report to Lancaster to hear a case involving the Fairchild County prosecuting attorney, R. S. Cunningham. Cunningham was charged with misconduct in office by a number of Lancaster people.

Announcing the new Chevrolet Six, Hadden Stevenson Co. proclaimed it "The Great American Value for 1932" at only $475. It featured silent synchro-mesh shift, simplified free wheeling, improved six-cylinder engine, 60 horse power (a 60 per cent increase over former models), maximum speeds of 65 to 70 miles an hour.

Nathan C. Bohnert, then Pickaway County's representative to the Ohio General Assembly was born in an old log cabin which was first established as a log school house in Scioto Twp. in 1806. The cabin was still in a good state of preservation, located on the Key Reed farm in Scioto Twp.

Rear Admiral Harley H. Christy, 61, native of Circleville and uncle of Mrs. Elmer Wolfe and cousin of Mrs. Jay Wall, Bowl. He is also the first of the biggest men in Uncle Sam's naval forces. On Dec. 1, Admiral Christy took over the post as commandant of New Orleans naval district, succeeding Rear Admiral Thomas Magruder who retired.

Over 400 boys and girls were assembled at Clarks' 5 and 10 Cent store awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus. Police were called to supervise the group for the "party" sponsored by store owners. Santa demonstrated many of the toys that the youngsters wanted to know about. As he was leaving Santa distributed toys and candy to all the youngsters attending the party. It was the first such Santa party at Clarks' store.

Common Sense

"Few of us like to think about discipline. To the modern liberal mind, the word has an almost pornographic sound. But discipline is necessary to freedom. Though discipline and freedom seem antithetical, each without the other destroys itself."

These words, from the book, "Who Pushed Humpty Dumpty? Dilemmas in American Education Today," were written by a New York educator, Donald Barr, headmaster of the Dalton School in New York City, has some other choice observations about contemporary American society.

"A few years ago," he wrote, "adolescence was a phrase; then it became a profession; now it is a nationality."

And: "On the day that parents stop paying tuition for non-education, on the day they stop handing out allowances for strike funds and narcotics and reeking apartments, the student revolution — impatient with reason, violent against restraint, a holiday from self control — will wither away and the real learning that must precede intelligent social change will begin."

On schools: "Everywhere schools and colleges ignore and starve the youngster's desire to learn; they feed and exploit his desire to pass."

These are words to whet the appetite for discussion and thought, and that is not a bad lubricant.

Physician Growth

Congress at any moment may go off on another major health experiment which could undermine their efforts, but American medical schools are beginning to make some inroads in the physician shortage. Doctors are hardly a dime a dozen, but the ratio of physicians to the general population is improving.

In 1965, the ratio of M. D.'s stood at one for each 682 Americans. By the end of this year, estimates now indicate the 292,000 physicians of six years ago will have expanded to 344,000 or one for every 630 citizens.

That 17 per cent growth rate is about three times the increase for the population as a whole.

Much of it is coming from enlarged medical schools and in some cases a trend toward graduation in a shorter period of time. The influx of doctors from other parts of the world also has increased during this period.

The fly in the ointment, if there is one, is that a major new national health scheme could inundate hospitals and doctors' offices with a new avalanche of work, such as occurred when Medicare and Medicaid came into full force.

If that does happen, no expansion of physician training could hope to cope with the added demand for some years to come.

Endurance Gap

A University of Wisconsin study has confirmed the obvious: children who live in the center of a large city have less physical endurance than kids in other areas.

The reason is simple. They don't have the opportunity to exercise as much, especially in such endurance-building activities as running, bicycling or swimming.

Although the university's study centered on children aged 10 to 13 living in Milwaukee's central districts, the findings should be similar for other age groups and in other locations. Cities are not all the same, but they have the common characteristic of too little opportunity for kids to exercise.

Certainly other factors than exercise enter into fatigue. Diet, proper rest and good health practices are among them. Lack of exercise, especially in a growing body, is a defect which cannot be overcome simply by good eating, sleeping or health habits.

The muscles, heart and lungs must be exercised if they are to perform at maximum efficiency.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Life doesn't begin at 40, but you can get more relief from pain after that age. In fact, a study at five Veterans Administration hospitals showed that the older you get the better the results you receive from taking painkillers. Patients 80 years old obtained almost twice as much pain relief as those between 40 and 45.

What did Czar Nicholas II, Kaiser Wilhelm II, King Edward VII and Lady Randolph Churchill, mother of Sir Winston Churchill, have in common? All had themselves tattooed during the late 19th century when the fad became popular among European nobility. Lady Churchill had a snake tattooed around her arm.

Getting a college degree has at least one advantage: it keeps you from getting the inferiority complex that afflicts many people who never went to college.

Do you have a philosophy of your own toward life? Walter Hagen, the great golfer, had a simple one which he used to say aloud every time he knocked a ball into the rough: "Don't hurry, don't worry. And don't forget to smell the flowers."

Among the 30 parts of the body that can now be transplanted are hearts, kidneys, lungs, bones and corneas. But can you guess which is the most important transplant? It is blood.

Quotable notables: "I believe that we are lost here in America, but I believe that we shall be found." — Thomas Wolfe.

Paper flood: One of the troubles with science today is that it is publishing so much about itself that even an expert has difficulty keeping up with his field. In 1771 Benjamin Franklin founded the first scientific journal in America, "Transactions of the American Philosophical Society," which is still in existence. But throughout the world some 500,000 scientific journals have sprung up.

Household hint: Eggs tend to keep longer if stored broad end up. This position helps protect the sealed air cell just below the broad end of the shell.

Widen your horizons: Chronic depression haunts the lives of millions of men and women during their middle years. This is most likely to happen, according to Dr. Francis J. Braceland, an authority in this field, among people who are "narrow of outlook and rigid in their views."

Worth remembering: "If you want to really know a man, observe his behavior with a woman, a flat tire, and children."

Behemoths: Two half-a-million-ton supertankers being built in Japan will draw 90 feet of water and are so huge that only about five ports in the world are deep enough for them to enter. Even the English Channel is too shallow to accommodate them.

Folklore: A girl may lose her sweetheart if she sits on a table while talking to him. A girl who carries a nutmeg in her pocket will marry soon—but to an old man. A girl who gives a pair of slippers to a man she is engaged to will never marry him.

NEW YORK (AP) — "The American West of John Ford," CBS' special Sunday night, was a warm, sentimental tribute to a man who has been making western movies since 1917.

Ford's films have earned him four best director Oscars—curiously not one for any of his westerns. He appeared periodically through programs well-laced with fight scenes from his films. A crusty individualist, Ford first was shown returning to Monument Valley—scene of many of his films—with John Wayne who worked with him first there in his 1933 "Stagecoach." James Stewart and Henry Fonda, two more of his favorite actors, recalled his style as a director in the course of a leisurely half-kidding interview.

It was a delightful hour. "Miss Teen-Age America," cute, dark-haired Colleen Fitzpatrick, was chosen Friday night in the usual tedious, 90-minute live coverage of the pageant finals. The girls are a bit younger than the "Miss America" contestants and the show's production values less opulent. But the show itself adheres rigidly to the torrid format. After all, you can sell more commercial time during a 90-minute spot than during an hour.

One had to feel sorry for most of the 55 finalists as they were introduced: A highly partisan audience in a Fort Worth auditorium broke into applause only for girls from Texas. Singer John Davidson and Lucie Arnaz handled the hosting chores, their eyes firmly on the cue cards. The program will undoubtedly get a great rating: The public apparently enjoys trying to outguess the judges.

CBS announced that it would replace the late evening "Merv Griffin Show" with old feature movies, starting in mid-February, a move widely anticipated for months. Griffin months ago made a deal to move his program to Metromedia broadcasting for syndication when he wound up his CBS contract.

The move will take Merv out of head-on competition with Johnny Carson and Dick Cavett, and put him in a battle for stations alongside Mike Douglas and David Frost.

Pauline Frederick, NBC's veteran United Nations correspondent, was hurrying to a broadcast booth to report U.N. activity Saturday in connection with the India-Pakistan conflict when she tripped, fell and broke her kneecap. She was hospitalized and NBC expects she will be out of action for some weeks.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Every time I catch cold I develop a cold sore. It lasts long after the cold miseries have disappeared.

Is there any way to prevent this or to help cure it when it happens? Do antibiotics help?

Miss J. E. Ida, Dear Miss E.: Cold sores, or herpes simplex, are caused by a virus. The virus may or may not be related to the virus that caused the cold itself.

Besides being unsightly, they often can be painful and the break in the lip, if neglected, may be secondarily infected by bacteria.

The antibiotics do not destroy viruses. Taking them by mouth, or even applying them locally with creams, lotions or ointments does not affect the virus responsible for cold sores.

For those who are susceptible it is often suggested that the lips be kept lubricated with a light mineral oil, or vaseline, as soon as a cold starts.

Cleansing tissues sometimes are made more attractive and whiter with bleaching agents. These, used too often and too roughly, can cause irritation of the skin around the mouth and may be a factor in inviting viral and germ infections by abrading the skin and the mucous membrane.

For this reason the lubrication is protective.

A new scientific approach to this problem is on the horizon and the experimental results already are encouraging.

By this new method a special dye will make the cold sore virus sensitive to light. It is said that the virus can then be killed by an ordinary fluorescent household light.

Is there any danger in piercing ears for earrings? My 12-year-old daughter insists on having her ears pierced.

Mrs. A. R. Ala, Dear Mrs. R.: For centuries ears have been pierced with every conceivable kind of instrument.

It was Samuel Taylor Coleridge who observed, "Every reform, however necessary, will by weak minds be carried to an excess which will itself need reforming."

Aboriginal tribes have pierced ears with porcupine quills and even sharply ground pieces of flintstone.

No one has ever studied the frequency of infection from these techniques.

Generally, piercing the ears is a safe procedure. Yet there always is the possibility of infection, even in expert hands.

The pressure of peer groups makes youngsters plead for piercing ears. Often they will have it done, without parental permission, by people who sell the earrings. I disapprove of this.

Some states have legislated against the piercing of ears by non-professionals. Although I know of many cases that have been successfully done by these people, I must say that, as a doctor, I prefer that piercing of the ears be done under sterile conditions by a physician.

Ice Is Blamed In Pomeroy Slide

POMEROY, Ohio (AP) — A preliminary survey by Ohio University geologists indicates ice formed in cracks of the cliff caused a landslide Friday that sent tons of dirt and rocks tumbling on Second Avenue.

The geologists, who will assist Army Engineers in further study of the cliff, said the landslide apparently was caused by expansion of frozen water over a long period of time.

The slide caused an estimated $75,000 damage to the Pomeroy post office and less serious damage to three other buildings. No one was hurt.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

'Resigned' Provokes Reader Response

DEAR ABBY: The letter signed "RESIGNED" interested me, but your very clever non-answer interested me even more. "Resigned" said her husband batted zero in the love department "But when a woman can't change a situation, she had better learn to live with it. And that's what I'm doing. Outside of being no Romeo, he's a good, sober, hardworking man, which is a lot more than some women have." And she signed herself "RESIGNED". Your answer: "As long as you remain 'resigned' you'll have no problem."

Now I ask you, Dear Abby, what if she doesn't remain resigned?

"ONCE RESIGNED BUT NO MORE"

DEAR ONCE: Either the woman's frustrations overwhelm her, and in order to get some attention she becomes a neurotic with some very real symptoms. Headaches, backaches, "nerves", pill-popping, martinis, to name a few.

Or she finds herself a romance on the side, and the only thing that bothers her is her conscience-occasionally. But rather than take her problem to a professional, who might be able to improve her relationship with her husband, she keeps telling herself it's hopeless, because she really likes the situation as it is, and if her husband should "recover", she won't be able to justify her playing around.

And by the way, this works the same with the husband who justifies his playing around because his wife is "cold". There are no "cold people, just those who don't know how to kindle the fire and keep it going.

DEAR ABBY: This is a letter to "Resigned" and to all her spiritual sisters who find themselves in a sexually unfulfilling marriage, and who nobly tell themselves "When a wife can't change a situation,

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

A large band of rain and drizzle extended from the Great Lakes south to the Gulf of Mexico today and is expected to dominate Ohio at least through Tuesday.

A low, forecast to move from the Gulf of Mexico into the lower Mississippi River Valley today and an associated flow of moist air from the Gulf is responsible for the rain.

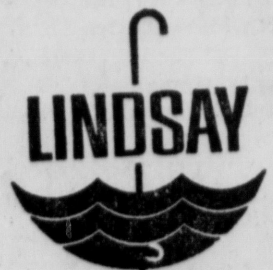

Temperatures at dawn ranged from the low to mid 40s across the state under cloudy skies, with all reporting stations in the state observing rain. Twelve-hour rainfall amounts ranged from a trace at Findlay to .27 inches in the Ohio River Valley near Parkersburg, W. Va.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Cloudy with rain tonight and Tuesday. Lows tonight in the low to mid 40s. Highs Tuesday in the 50s.

NORTHWEST INLAND, LAKE SHORE, NORTHEAST INLAND — Rain tonight and Tuesday. Lows 40 to 45. Highs Tuesday in the upper 40s and low 50s.

WEST CENTRAL, CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST — Rain tonight and Tuesday. Lows tonight in the mid 40s. Highs Tuesday in the low to mid 50s.

College Students To Seek Political Convention Power

CHICAGO (AP) — A conference of 3,000 college students has committed itself to working for the election of youthful delegates to the 1972 political conventions.

Duane Draper, president of the Association of Student Governments, said the action Sunday was a "reaffirmation that young people will work at electoral politics when they see a chance for success."

He and other leaders of the meeting, called the Emergency Conference for New Voters, also warned the Democratic party that predominantly liberal young persons will not automatically deliver the vote to the Democrats.

Under the new rules for the Democratic party, Draper said, 300 of the party's 3,000 convention delegates will be young persons.

"The question is whether they will be independent young people or Daley young people," he added, referring to Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, a proponent of organization politics.

Allan Lowenstein, a former New York congressman and head of Americans for Democratic Action, said most young persons will be against the reelection of President Nixon.

"But," Lowenstein said, "if the Democrats think there's an automatic delivery of votes they don't understand what this conference means."

The conference action approved the formation of a National Youth Caucus, which is intended to help students in college communities pack precinct, county and district political caucuses with young persons. If enough are placed on these caucuses, the youthful strategists reason, it will be possible to convince major party leaders they deserve representation in the state delegations.

The Youth Caucus will be most concerned with nonprimary states, where concentration of college students can be more effective.

Art Kaminsky, an aide to Lowenstein and a planner of the conference, said youths in many nonprimary states could indicate their strength at precinct and county levels, then accept an offer to be placed on a candidate's slate of delegates.

"It doesn't really matter if a kid is committed to Muskie or McGovern or whoever so long as the candidate is aware that the youth delegate will be completely independent at the convention on matters such as platform, rules and credentials," Kaminsky said.

"One really important area is selection of a vice president," Kaminsky added. "The last four vice presidents have become presidential candidates."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

'Resigned' Provokes Reader Response

DEAR ABBY: The letter signed "RESIGNED" interested me, but your very clever non-answer interested me even more. "Resigned" said her husband batted zero in the love department. "But when a woman can't change a situation, she had better learn to live with it. And that's what I'm doing. Outside of being no Romeo, he's a good, sober, hardworking man, which is a lot more than some women have." And she signed herself "RESIGNED". Your answer: "As long as you remain 'resigned' you'll have no problem."

Now I ask you, Dear Abby, what if she doesn't remain resigned?

DEAR ONCE: Either the woman's frustrations overwhelm her, and in order to get some attention she becomes a neurotic with some very real symptoms. Headaches, backaches, "nerves", pill-popping, martinis, to name a few.

Or she finds herself a romance on the side, and the only thing that bothers her is her conscience-occasionally. But rather than take her problem to a professional, who might be able to improve her relationship with her husband, she keeps telling herself it's hopeless, because she really likes the situation as it is, and if her husband should "recover", she won't be able to justify her playing around.

And by the way, this woman the same with the husband who justifies his playing around because his wife is "cold". There are no "cold" people, just those who don't know how to kindle the fire and keep it going.

DEAR ABBY: This is a letter to "Resigned" and to all her spiritual sisters who find themselves in a sexually unfulfilling marriage, and who nobly tell themselves "When a wife can't change a situation, she had better learn to live with it. After all, he is a sober, hard-working man, and for security and the children's sake, etc., etc."

That was me 20 years ago. I also made the best of a marriage with a dull, unresponsive husband, and I suppressed everything I felt inside, and even convinced myself that I was in control and was doing the right thing.

Now I am 45, my children are grown up, and all the frustration I've suppressed for years has suddenly broken thru. I suddenly realize that I've probably done my husband a great injustice by assuring him that everything was "fine," and I was perfectly happy with things the way they were. For in a way, he was cheated, too. I don't know yet how this will turn out, but the realization that I've compromised my life away is almost unbearable.

I have no advice for all the "Resigneds" of the world, except perhaps to say that right now you are dealing with surface feeling, and one day you will have to face your inner feelings honestly. And my God, how it hurts!

JUST "ME" DEAR ABBY: In all the years I have been reading "DEAR ABBY", I think the letter signed "RESIGNED" is the most intelligent I have ever read in your column.

Here is a woman who had a cross to bear, and she bore it. No woman has everything. That woman's husband did not give her the sexual satisfaction she would have liked, but she reviewed his other attributes, and was grateful for them. That woman was a saint.

We would be amazed at some of the things we can do without if we have to. Sign me

BEEN THERE DEAR BEEN: I agree, if a woman MUST do without something, she shows maturity and intelligence in accepting her lot with grace and being grateful for that which she has to compensate. But in this enlightened age while some women MUST live without sexual fulfillment, many do not. They just think they do.

College Students To Seek Political Convention Power

CHICAGO (AP) — A conference of 3,000 college students has committed itself to working for the election of youthful delegates to the 1972 political conventions.

Duane Draper, president of the Association of Student Governments, said the action Sunday was a "reaffirmation that young people will work at electoral politics when they see a chance for success."

He and other leaders of the meeting, called the Emergency Conference for New Voters, also warned the Democratic party that predominantly liberal young persons will not automatically deliver the vote to the Democrats.

Under the new rules for the Democratic party, Draper said, 300 of the party's 3,000 convention delegates will be young persons.

"The question is whether they will be independent young people or Daley young people," he added, referring to Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, a proponent of organization politics.

Allan Lowenstein, a former New York congressman and head of Americans for Democratic Action, said most young persons will be against the reelection of President Nixon.

"But," Lowenstein said, "if the Democrats think there's an automatic delivery of votes they don't understand what this conference means."

The conference action approved the formation of a National Youth Caucus, which is intended to help students in college communities pack precinct, county and district political caucuses with young persons. If enough are placed on these caucuses, the youthful strategists reason, it will be possible to convince major party leaders they deserve representation in the state delegations.

The Youth Caucus will be most concerned with nonprimary states, where concentration of college students can be more effective.

Art Kaminsky, an aide to Lowenstein and a planner of the conference, said youths in many nonprimary states could indicate their strength at precinct and county levels, then accept an offer to be placed on a candidate's slate of delegates.

"It doesn't really matter if a kid is committed to Muskie or McGovern or whoever so long as the candidate is aware that the youth delegate will be completely independent at the convention on matters such as platform, rules and credentials," Kaminsky said. "One really important area is selection of a vice president," Kaminsky added. "The last four vice presidents have become presidential candidates."

Couple Exchanges Vows In Candlelight Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS D. HUFFINES

In a candlelight service Miss Nancy Ellen Hartley and Mr. Douglas Dale Huffines exchanged wedding vows 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6th in Pontious United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hartley, Stoutsville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Huffines, Route 5, Circleville.

The Rev. Liston Halley Jr., performed the double ring ceremony before the altar adorned with vases of white snapdragons and blue baby's breath, and blue and white altar candles. White satin bows with lilies-of-the-valley and sprigs of evergreen marked the pews.

Mrs. Louise May Drummond, organist, and Mrs. Brenda Huffines, vocalist, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore for her wedding day a floor length white satin gown which she designed and made herself. The bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in bridal points over her hands. Venice lace petals trimmed in seed pearls and crystals held her mandrice veil edged in matching lace. The bride carried a cascade arrangement atop a white Bible of white pompon mums and sweetheart roses with streamers of white ribbon and sprigs of evergreen.

Mrs. Cheter Yaple, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a mediterranean blue floor length gown with an empire waist and bishop sleeves in polyester crepe trimmed in silver braid. A matching headpiece completed her self-made ensemble. She carried a colonial bouquet of multi-colored fall flowers.

Bridesmaids, Miss Karla Hartley, a sister of the bride and Miss Gloria Gerhardt, were bridesmaids. Miss Sharon Hartley, a sister of the bride was junior attendant. They were dressed identically to the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets.

Mr. Brad Huffines performed the duties of best man for his brother, Mr. Dan Goss, a cousin of the groom and Mr. Ned Boggs served as ushers.

Mrs. Hartley was attired in a dress with a brown knit bodice and tweed knit skirt. Her accessories were camel colored. Mrs. Huffines wore a long sleeved dress with a beige crepe top and tapestry skirt and green accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of bronze and gold mums.

A reception in the social rooms of the church immediately followed the ceremony. Centering the white linen covered table was a three tiered Capistrano blue and white decorated cake with bells and doves.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gene Hartley, Mrs. James Hartley, Mrs. Bill Hartley and Mrs. Larry Hartley, sisters-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Brad Huffines, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains and Cumberland Gap, the bride wore a camel colored knit pants suit with hunter green accessories. The couple now resides at Monroe.

The new Mrs. Huffines is a graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School. She was formerly employed at the Third National Bank in Circleville and is currently at the Citizens Bank in Hamilton.

Mr. Huffines is a graduate of Logan Elm High School and Columbus Technical Institute. He served two years as a chaplain assistant in the army in Vietnam. He is presently employed by the Ohio Casualty Company in Hamilton.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Brad Huffines, Bath, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dickson and Dale, New Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Goss, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Goss, Canal Winchester; Mrs. Brenda Huffines, Middletown and other guests from Williamsport, Kingston and Amanda.

Bridesmaids, Miss Karla Hartley, a sister of the bride and Miss Gloria Gerhardt, were bridesmaids. Miss Sharon Hartley, a sister of the bride was junior attendant. They were dressed identically to the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets.

Mr. Brad Huffines performed the duties of best man for his brother, Mr. Dan Goss, a cousin of the groom and Mr. Ned Boggs served as ushers.

Mrs. Hartley was attired in a dress with a brown knit bodice and tweed knit skirt. Her accessories were camel colored. Mrs. Huffines wore a long sleeved dress with a beige crepe top and tapestry skirt and green accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of bronze and gold mums.

A reception in the social rooms of the church immediately followed the ceremony. Centering the white linen covered table was a three tiered Capistrano blue and white decorated cake with bells and doves.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gene Hartley, Mrs. James Hartley, Mrs. Bill Hartley and Mrs. Larry Hartley, sisters-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Brad Huffines, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains and Cumberland Gap, the bride wore a camel colored knit pants suit with hunter green accessories. The couple now resides at Monroe.

The new Mrs. Huffines is a graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School. She was formerly employed at the Third National Bank in Circleville and is currently at the Citizens Bank in Hamilton.

Mr. Huffines is a graduate of Logan Elm High School and Columbus Technical Institute. He served two years as a chaplain assistant in the army in Vietnam. He is presently employed by the Ohio Casualty Company in Hamilton.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Brad Huffines, Bath, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dickson and Dale, New Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Goss, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Goss, Canal Winchester; Mrs. Brenda Huffines, Middletown and other guests from Williamsport, Kingston and Amanda.

December PTA Programs Set

All elementary schools in Circleville will again provide Christmas programs for the December PTA meetings. All programs are scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and are being conducted by Paul Dunkle and Linda Ellits, local music instructors.

The first program will be Dec. 8, when the Atwater students in grades one, two, three and kindergarten will give their program at the Circleville High School. Their program is "Christmas In Foreign Lands and Home."

On Dec. 9, the Nicholas Drive school will present "Christmas by Candlelight." Corwin Elementary School will give their program at the Junior High School on Dec. 13. Their play, "Thirty Minutes With Santa" will be preceded and followed by carol singing.

Mound Street will give "Sounds of Christmas" on Dec. 14, given by grades one, two and kindergarten. South Court grades one, two, three and four will give, "Cheer Up, Mister Santa" on Dec. 15.

"Christmas Comes to Our School" will be given by grades two, three, four and five, at the High Street School on Dec. 20, with grade one, kindergarten and six adding carols and music of the holiday season.

Parents and friends are encouraged to attend these programs.

Local Banks Support Ohio Private Colleges

20 Persons Die In Auto Crashes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty persons died on Ohio highways during the weekend just ended, only eight fewer than died over the long Thanksgiving holiday. The holiday death count was two days longer.

Yet the past weekend's list compares with 31 who died the first weekend of December last year.

Two triple-death accidents — one near Warren on Sunday, the other near Ashland on Saturday — accounted for six of the past weekend's deaths.

The Dead:

FRIDAY
SPRINGFIELD — James L. Huff, 31, of Springfield, in a two-car collision at the intersection of Ohio 41 and 54 east of the city.

XENIA — Ernest Ackey, 44, of Xenia, when his car veered off U.S. 35 and crashed near here.

CIRCLEVILLE — Roger L. Knapp, 23, of New Holland, when his car crashed into a tree on the Waterloo-New Holland-Egypt Road.

WARREN — Bonnie L. Reeves, 53, of Campbell, in a two-car crash in Newton Falls.

SATURDAY
NEW RICHMOND — Wesley Sutton, 23, of Norwood, when his car ran head-on into a milk truck on U.S. 52 east of here.

FOSTORIA — Paul C. Weaks, 40, of Fostoria, when the car in which he was riding was hit by a Norfolk & Western train at a crossing here.

CONNEAUT — Timothy Vorous, 19, of Kingsville, when the car he was driving left Ohio 7 south of here and struck a tree and a utility pole.

MANSFIELD — Eugene and

Gertrude Lama, both 71, of Ann Arbor, Mich., in a car-truck crash on Interstate 71 near here.

ASHLAND — Billy Dillon, 19, Floyd Adkins, 37, and Ronald Roberts, 19, all of Ashland, when their car hit a tree along U.S. 250 here.

BATAVIA — Reggie August, 15, of Batavia, when his motorcycle and a car collided at a Clermont County intersection.

Man Charged In Arson Plan

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The case of a man who allegedly tried to hire an undercover policeman to set fire to his dry cleaning plant will be presented to the Cuyahoga County prosecutor today.

The Warrensville Heights businessman was arrested Saturday after he reportedly paid a man he knew as Kenny Wilburn Wright $500 and made arrangements for the fire to be set Saturday night, police said.

Wright, whose real name is Richard Pursley, 29, works in the police juvenile unit. He wore an Afro wig and bugged himself so that a tape recording of his conversation with the businessman could be made by detectives in a truck parked outside.

SUNDAY

BLUFFTON — Larry C. Stewart, 29, Centerville, Iowa, when his tractor-trailer rig crashed into a creek and snapped in half on U.S. 39 near here.

NAPOLÉON — Edward F. Meeker, 51, of Rudolph, when he tried to pass a car on U.S. 6 and hit another auto head-on.

NORTH LIMA — Andrea M. Goehring, 24, North Lima, when the car in which she was riding hit an embankment on Sharrott Road here.

NEWARK — Mrs. Genevieve E. Myers, 66, Newark, struck by a car in her hometown.

WARREN — Edna N. Sutton, 49; Jeffery L. Sutton, 10; and Jamie L. Skaggs, 14, all of Niles, when their small foreign car collided with a tractor-trailer rig on Highland Avenue, two miles south of Warren.

Teen Queen Back Home

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — For the nation's top teenage beauty, it's classes as usual today.

Radiant Colleen Fitzpatrick was expected back at home just in time for the morning session of Lancaster High School's split-session program.

The 16-year-old junior, a statuesque beauty with flowing brown hair and deep blue eyes, was named Miss Teenage America Friday in Fort Worth, Tex., from among a field of 55 contestants. She represented Columbus at the annual pageant.

Even though today is to be a routine school day for Colleen, Tuesday will not. A special assembly in her honor is to be held at the high school in the morning, followed by a public reception at the school that evening.

Winning the national contest has earned Colleen a $10,000 college scholarship at the school of her choice and a guaranteed $5,000 in income for personal appearances during her 1972 reign.

Price Control Questions Answered By IRS Experts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here, in question-and-answer form, are explanations of Price Commission and Cost of Living Council economic regulations as issued by the Economic Stabilization Program of the Internal Revenue Service:

Q: May a firm with a loss in its base period raise its prices to create a projected profit?

A: The general rules of the Price Commission make no provision for a firm in a loss position during the base period, but the Price Commission will consider any such situation and determine whether it justifies special relief. In addition, more specific guidelines will soon be issued.

Q: Do the economic controls apply to college tuition charges?

A: Yes, tuition, as well as room and board, is covered.

Q: Must a company which is a prenotifying firm also submit quarterly reports to the Price Commission?

A: Yes.

Q: May individual health-insurance premiums be raised if based on a formula in a contract in effect prior to the imposition of economic controls where the formula reflects only changed conditions of risk (e.g. number of claims)?

A: Yes, premium increases based on a formula in a pre-existing contract which reflects only changed conditions of risk may be applied normally.

Q: If a corporate parent and its subsidiaries are located in different IRS districts, where should requests for rulings or information be filed?

A: All inquiries, ruling requests, etc. should go to the IRS district director in the district where the parent corporation is located.

Q: Service charges such as utility, parking meter and bridge tolls were subject to Phase 1 while licenses and fines such as vehicle licenses and parking tickets were exempt. Does the same situation apply to Phase 2?

A: Yes. Unless specifically altered by regulation or published rulings, policy rulings issued by the Cost of Living Council and interpretations issued by the Office of Emergency Preparedness continue to be applicable after Nov. 13, 1971.

Military Pay Hike Detailed By U.S. Navy

General misunderstanding and confusion surrounds the latest military pay raise that went into effect on November 14, 1971.

Chief L. H. Sandy, Navy Recruiter in charge of the Lancaster area states that the pay raise includes all members of the Armed Forces, not exclusively for those in the Army.

"The Navy has various enlistment programs," said Chief Sandy, "that enable a young man to be enlisted at a basic pay of $268.50 a month and up to $311.10 a month."

Those men who are enlisted at the pay grade E-1, thus earning the basic pay of $268.50 are automatically advanced to pay grade E-2 after completion of recruit training. At this time, the E-2 earns the basic pay of $299.10 per month.

In addition, all successful applicants who are enlisted in the Nuclear Power or Advanced Electronics Programs are initially enlisted with basic pay beginning at $311.10 a month.

For more information on military pay or the various training programs available in the Navy, contact Chief Sandy or Petty Officer Kimberland at the Navy Recruiting Office at the Lancaster Post Office building, room 108.

Wet Weather Covers Much Of Country

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Damp and cloudy weather covered much of the nation today as a front off the Louisiana coast caused severe rainstorms in the lower Mississippi Valley and funneled light rain and drizzle as far north as the Eastern Great Lakes.

Heavy thundershowers and some flash flooding were reported in Louisiana and Mississippi.

More than two inches of rain fell on Baton Rouge, La., in six hours. Lake Charles, La., reported almost six inches of rain in 18 hours.

Another storm center, located in the Pacific Northwest, was expected to move over the northern Rockies today and dump heavy snow in Montana, Northern Idaho, eastern Nevada and northern Utah.

Snow warnings also were in effect for parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

An Arctic high brought clear skies but sub-zero temperatures to much of New England.

A record low for Dec. 5 was set Sunday at St. Johnsbury, Vt., with a reading of minus 13.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 12 below zero at Houlton, Me., to 75 at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Top New York Cop Gets Bounced

By LARRY SIMONBERG
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Popeye Doyle, the free-wheeling detective in the hit movie, "The French Connection," was impatient with routine, go-by-the-book police work.

So was Eddie Egan, the real-life detective who was the model for the movie character.

Egan, now dismissed from the city's police force for breaking department rules, is counting on a film career for his living.

The 16-year veteran who made 5,000 arrests was fired from the force Thursday. He was found guilty after a departmental trial of failing to turn in narcotics and weapons, to show up in court when required and to keep an accurate memo book.

"My only crime," he said Friday, "is that I tried to be a good cop, a cop who lived his job and cared more about fighting organized crime, keeping narcotics from reaching and destroying the young people of this city than the after-the-fact bureaucracy that has consistently hampered the effectiveness of every policeman in New York."

Egan turned in his gun and shield at the East 104th Street stationhouse in Spanish Harlem. "This is a sad day for me," the 40-year-old former detective said.

After the movie was released, Egan put in his papers for retirement. But the departmental charges were then filed, and he was dismissed only hours before his retirement would have become effective. If an appeal fails, Egan will lose a $7,000-a-year pension.

Ironically, in "The French Connection," Egan plays a superior infuriated by the flamboyant, unorthodox methods of the Popeye character played by Gene Hackman.

In real life, Egan was also called "Popeye." He said he was responsible for seizing $142 million worth of narcotics in the last two years.

"I knew as soon as the film came out that I better get out of this job," Egan said, "because there would be this guy sitting up there a headquarters reading his rule book, and his guy would say, 'Either the job is done this way or we go by the book. It can't be both. We'll have to rewrite the book or get rid of that guy.'"

The former detective said there could be 40 forms to fill out for each arrest. At the rate of 10 arrests a day, that would be 400 forms.

Egan, who said his bank account had shriveled to $89.71, has been offered other movie roles. He is supposed to act in "Kansas City Prime" next.

"I feel sorry for these men handcuffed to typewriters," Egan declared. "No crime is committed in the stationhouse. Crime is committed in the streets."

"They say I've effected more arrests than anyone in the history of the Police Department. But they also say I'm guilty of paperwork—failing to maintain a proper memo book—but they say I'm the most dedicated man in the department. I'm utterly confused what I am now."

Domestic Argument Ends In Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police are blaming a domestic argument for the shooting death here shortly before noon Sunday of Claude Thompson, 34, of Columbus.

Police say they are holding another man for questioning in the incident. They said Thompson allegedly had threatened several persons with a gun before being shot himself.

Cleveland Browns Win Title; Stop Bengals, 31-27

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — First-year Coach Nick Skorich started making plans immediately to avoid a letdown now that Cleveland Browns clinched the American Football Conference's Central Division title with a 31-27 triumph over Cincinnati Sunday.

Houston lifted the Browns into the division title, the club's sixth in eight years, by upsetting second place Pittsburgh 29-3. Even if the Browns lose and the Steelers (5-7) win their remaining games, the Browns would win the title because of a better record within the division, 5-1.

Leroy Kelly scored two touchdowns and gained 127 yards in 23 carries and Bill Nelsen threw for 224 yards and two touchdown passes to lead the

Browns to the victory over the Bengals, now 4-8, who were hoping to keep a three-game winning streak and their playoff hopes alive.

The Browns took a 7-0 lead in the game when Cincinnati's Fred Willis fumbled the opening kickoff at his 18 and Ken Brown picked up the loose ball and ran it to the four. Leroy Kelly ran over from the one.

The Bengals came back on Horst Muhlmann's 46-yard field goal and a 72-yard, 11-play touchdown drive capped by Doug Dressler's four-yard run.

Al Beauchamp then intercepted two of Nelsen's passes to set up Willis' nine yard scoring run and Muhlmann's 24-yard field goal to make it 20-7.

The Browns regained the lead, 21-20, when Nelsen completed a 53-yard touchdown pass to Frank Pitts in the third quarter.

Pitts, who escaped from defenders Lemar Parrish and Ken Riley at the 22, said, "Parrish had an interception, but I got my hand between his and snuck it away from him. I pulled down between his hands to get the ball."

"I had the ball, but it popped up and Pitts took it away," said Parrish.

The Bengals took the lead again at 27-21 when Essex Johnson streaked 86 yards down the sidelines after the Browns bunched up to stop a third down play.

"It was a finesse play," explained Brown. "We noticed some of their linemen have a tendency to move to the outside."

The Browns then drove 67 yards to the Bengals five, but had to settle for a 12-yard field goal by Don Cockroft to cut the lead to 27-24.

Muhlmann missed a 52-yard field goal and the Browns then drove 80 yards for the winning touchdown as Nelsen completed five of six passes for 46 yards and Kelly ran 18 yards to set up his four yard scoring run.

"We scored too fast," said Nelsen. "I got scared because we had to give them the football back."

LE Stymied By Falcon Stall, 56-47

Held to a single field goal in the fourth quarter Logan Elm suffered its fourth consecutive defeat, losing 56-47 to visiting Franklin Heights (3-0) Saturday.

The Falcons' stalling tactics to break up the tight LE zone defense in the second half was the contributing factor to the low scoring tilt.

The Braves began the tilt with a man to man defense, but shifted to a zone in the second quarter after falling behind, 24-15 in the first period.

Nine turnovers in the initial eight minutes of play were committed by the Braves. In the second quarter Logan Elm managed to gain a point on the visitors and trailed 37-29 at halftime.

IN the third quarter Franklin Heights had trouble finding the range over Logan Elm's zone which had big men Bill McKnight, 6-6; Alex Jones, 6-2;

and Doug Barnett, 6-2, under the bucket, and guards Tom Sykes and Tim Justice out front.

The Braves were able to narrow the margin to five points and then the Franklin Heights coach called time out and the Falcons began their stalling game. Nearly five minutes of playing time were left in the third period.

And it was slow-down basketball for the next 13 minutes. The Braves managed to pull within two points, 44-42, with 1:20 to go in the third period but could never get any closer.

The score was 48-45 at the end of the third period. Nearly two minutes went by in the final frame before the Braves scored, a field goal by Tim Justice, and it was the last time they scored in the tilt.

The Falcons held the ball most of the final period, and their disciplined game was so successful they ignored several seemingly easy opportunities to score in order to retain possession of the ball. No points were scored in the game from 5:08 to 1:15 on the clock and only three field goal were converted in the entire fourth quarter.

The Braves began fouling to break the stall with 1:15 to go and the Falcons took advantage of the fouls to put the game on ice.

TOM Williams of Franklin Heights was the game's leading scorer with 20 points coming on seven field goals and six foul shots. Williams was seven for 12 from the field and six for six at the foul line.

Alex Jones and Tom Sykes, with 10 points each, led the Braves' offense.

Steve Fischer, getting his first starting assignment this season for the Braves, scored seven of his nine points in the first half and was the Braves' top rebounder at halftime. Fischer made four of even shots from the field and converted his only chance at the foul line.

Rounding out the Braves scoring, Doug Barnett tallied seven, Tim Justice five, Jeff Young four and Bill McKnight two.

McKnight was Logan Elm's leading rebounder with nine while Jones had eight. The Braves pulled down a total of 39 missed shots.

TOM Williams had 14 of the visitors' 30 rebounds.

From the field the Brave made 18 of 55 shots, a 32.7 per cent average, and at the foul line they made 11 of 16, a 68.7 average.

The Falcons made 23 of 58 field goal attempts, a 39.6 per cent average and 10 of 20 at the charity stripe for a 50 per cent average. Officials assessed 11 personal fouls against the visitors and 19 against LE.

The Brave's reserve team picked up its second win, a 66-56 decision over the Little Falcons. It was the second win for the LE reserves who now have a 2-2 record. Terry Crumley scored 21 points, Jay Justice 14, Steve Sargent 11 and Scott Bower nine for the winners.

The next game for the Braves is Friday at Adena. Saturday they host Teays Valley.

Burleson, North Carolina State Rips Georgia, 92-81

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tom McMillen, Maryland's highly touted 6-foot-11 center, has received a major share of the early-season publicity among college basketball's towering and talented sophomores, but he might have to make room for the biggest newcomer of them all—7-4 Tom Burleson of North Carolina State.

Burleson, the tallest player in the nation, erupted for 37 points Saturday night, leading the unranked Wolfpack to a 92-81 victory over Georgia, while McMillen scored 35 points as the sixth-rated Terrapins set a school scoring record in beating George Washington 117-96.

Meanwhile, top-ranked UCLA, seeking its sixth consecutive national championship, coasted to its second easy victory in a row, routing Iowa 106-72 as Henry Bibby set a career high with 32 points.

Robert McAdoo's 27 points, Dennis Wuyck's 21 and George Karl's 20 led second-rated North Carolina to a 90-75 triumph over Pitt. Southern California, No. 3, whipped San Francisco 102-82 as Paul Westphal led the way with 31 points and 12 assists.

Fourth-ranked Marquette, behind Bob Lackey's 21 points and Marcus Washington's 20, trounced Bowling Green 84-64. Seven-foot Luke Witte's 21 points helped fifth-rated Ohio State top Oregon 68-57.

Houston, No. 7, edged Tennessee 67-65 despite a 28-point showing by the Volunteers' Mike Edwards. Long Beach State, rated eighth, used Ed Ratleff's 33 points to withstand Nevada-Las Vegas 83-72.

New York Rangers Beat Vancouver, 6-3

by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York's Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield, the highest scoring line in the National Hockey League, erupted for a goal apiece in a quick second-period flurry that enabled the Rangers to beat Vancouver 6-3 Sunday night and take a two-point lead over Montreal and Boston in the NHL's East Division.

A string of 30 consecutive points helped No. 9 Louisville crush Bellarmine 116-58, and 10th-ranked Kentucky ended the 28-game home court winning streak of 14th-rated Kansas, beating the Jayhawks 79-69.

Ernie Fleming's 25 points paced 11th-ranked Jacksonville to a 77-68 decision over East Carolina. Henry Wilmore pumped in 38 points, sparking No. 13 Michigan to a 90-69 victory over Western Michigan.

Penn. rated 15th, got 26 points from Bobby Morse, 23 from Phil Hankinson and 20 from Phil Hankinson and 20 points, 14 rebounds and nine assists from Corky Calhoun, in trimming Navy 94-74. Harold Little's two free throws with 13 seconds remaining gave New Mexico a 78-76 upset victory over 16th-ranked New Mexico State.

St. John's, N.Y., No. 1, was sparked by Greg Cluess' 25 points in a 98-81 triumph over Vanderbilt. Villanova, the No. 18 team, rallied from a seven-point first-half deficit and defeated Detroit 83-64 as Chris Ford paced the offense with 26 points.

Brigham Young, rated 19th, won its Time Zone Tournament, edging St. Joseph's, Pa., with the help of Kresimir Cosic's 31 points, 14 rebounds and 20th-ranked Oklahoma bowed to Illinois 70-65.

Utah State Tough Hurdle For Fifth-Rated Ohio State

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fred Taylor says Utah State, the Buckeyes' basketball visitor tonight, will be the toughest hurdle of the young season for his fifth-ranked Ohio State squad.

"They're a good basketball team. They were very much up tempo last year and expect that this year, too," said Taylor, after the Buckeyes whacked visiting Oregon 68-57 Saturday night for a 2-0 start.

Miami, the Mid-American favorite, wasn't so fortunate against another Big Ten team, taking a 65-50 shiner at Indiana. Ohio University, Bowling Green and Kent State, three more MAC squads, were beaten too.

Steve Downing hit 16 points for Indiana before injuring his knee midway in the second half. Miami, 1-1, was led by Larry Garlock's 13 points.

Fourth-ranked Marquette whipped Bowling Green 94-64 with a scrambling press in the second half, despite 24 points from the Falcons' Dalynn Badenhop. Bowling Green is 0-2.

Northwestern, held to only one field goal in the first eight minutes, rallied to beat Ohio University 76-65. Barry Moran, who hit 32 points against Kentucky earlier in the week, was held to two points by the Bobcat defense before fouling out. Ohio, dropping to a 1-1 mark, was led by Bob Howell with 16 points.

Derek Dickey's basket with 1:28 to play forged Cincinnati an 80-78 lead in an 85-80 exhibition triumph over the Athletics in Action. Dickey scored 19 points and pulled down a game high 19 rebounds while mate Lloyd Batts poured in 26.

Akron hit 56 per cent of its floor shots, stalled the last 10 minutes of the first half to protect a lead and chopped down Kent State 53-39. Leonard Paul's 21 points led the upset.

St. Louis had built up a 67-47 lead with 6½ minutes left, then held off a furious Dayton rally to post a 75-71 triumph. Led by reserve Pat Murnen, the Flyers whittled away steadily by forcing St. Louis turnovers with a man-to-man press but ran out of time.

In Ohio Conference action, Oberlin recorded its second straight win over Heidelberg 78-67. Marietta edged Mount Union 74-73 behind the 31-point performance of Rick Raden, and Baldwin-Wallace down a cold-shooting Kenyon team 61-57.

Rio Grande trimmed Malone 75-74 for its second Mid-Ohio Conference win against no losses.

Other games: Earlham, Ind., 65, Wittenberg 64; Findlay 79, Central State 70; Ball State 57, Otterbein 74; Washington and Jefferson 76, Denison 75.

Rams Smash Saints; Ellison Sets Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Los Angeles running back Willie Ellison started things off in grand style against New Orleans Sunday.

The five-year veteran raced 80 yards for a touchdown early in the first quarter and then rushed 247 yards in 26 carries for a National Football League record.

"It took a lot of extra effort and stamina. It's the happiest day of my life," the 200-pound Ellison said after the Rams upended New Orleans 45-28.

Ellison's performance stole attention from a 105-yard kickoff return by Travis Williams and three touchdown tosses by Roman Gabriel.

He broke the standard of 243 yards set by Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo against the New York Jets on Dec. 8, 1963 in the American Football League and the mark of 237 yards established twice by former Cleveland standout Jim Brown.

"Just about everybody told me at halftime that I would get the record," he said. "The line did a tremendous job of blocking and Gabriel did a great job of selecting plays against the New Orleans defense."

In other contests Sunday, San Diego upset Minnesota 30-14,

New England stunned Miami 34-13. Philadelphia edged Detroit 23-20. Cleveland nipped Cincinnati 31-27. Atlanta defeated Oakland 24-13. Houston swamped Pittsburgh 29-3. Washington crushed the New York Giants 23-7. Denver downed Chicago 6-3. Green Bay and St. Louis battled to a 16-16 tie and Baltimore blanked Buffalo 24-0.

In Saturday's game, Dallas swarmed over the New York Jets 52-10.

The San Francisco 49ers entertained the Kansas City Chiefs in Monday night's nationally televised game.

The Dolphins' setback spoiled their bid to clinch the American Conference's East Division title and moved them into a showdown with the Colts.

Minnesota's unexpected loss stopped them from sewing up the National Conference's Central Division crown.

Quarterback John Hadl led his team 63 yards in seven plays to set up the go-ahead touchdown as the Chargers barreled from behind to reel off 20 points in the final quarter. With the Eagles' upset over the Lions, Minnesota could have secured Central Division laurels by winning.

Several Miami miscues and precision passing by rookie Jim Plunkett snapped the Dolphins' eight-game victory streak.

Mercury Morris took the opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown to give Miami an early lead, but Plunkett then rifled eight straight passes to set up a touchdown. Plunkett, who celebrated his 24th birthday Sunday, completed 16 of 23 passes for 223 yards.

Leroy Kelly plunged four yards with 1:48 remaining as the Browns garnered the AFC's Central Division title, which they will retain even if they lose their final two games.

Norm Bulaich's one-yard lunge capping a 78-yard march broke a scoreless tie in the third period and veteran Johnny Unitas then fired a five-yarder to Ray Perkins for his first scoring pass of the season.

The Falcons intercepted Daryle Lamonia twice and recovered three fumbles in handing the Raiders their second straight loss. Atlanta also suffered five turnovers but sealed the win after Oakland couldn't score after grabbing a fumble on the Atlanta four.

Washington snagged four interceptions in the first half and

Larry Brown scored twice while picking up 129 yards. New York's sole touchdown came when Otto Brown recovered a blocked punt in the end zone.

The Oilers' rigid defense turned three Terry Bradshaw interceptions into points as safety John Charles made his fourth and fifth interceptions and defensive tackle Leo Brooks pilfered another.

Pete Liske hit Kent Kramer with a five-yard pass in the final minute as the Eagles came from behind to ruin Detroit's NFC Central Division playoff aspirations. Moments before Liske's scoring pass, the Lions went ahead 20-16 on quarterback Greg Landry's five-yard run.

Jim Turner kicked a 33-yard field goal with two minutes left after giving the Broncos an early 3-0 advantage with a 34-yard boot. Denver's defense limited the Bears to 66 yards total offense and dumped quarterback Bobby Douglass nine times.

Rookie Tim Webster's 27-yard field goal as the final gun sounded hoisted the Packers into a tie after both teams scored touchdowns in the final seven minutes.

CRAIG LAMBERT

Lambert Receives Grid Recognition

When a back sets a rushing record such as Ed Marinaro of Cornell University did this year, he has to have a lot of help and Marinaro had just that in the person of Circleville's Craig Lambert. Cornell's offensive tackle who continually opened gaping holes in the opposition's line for the Big Red back.

It was Lambert who provided the openings that made the record setting rushing mark possible.

Singled out by Cornell coaches as one of the finest blockers in the east, Lambert gained well deserved recognition from all quarters.

He was named to the All-Ivy League team, gained a berth on the Associated Press All-Eastern second grid squad, an offensive tackle spot on the All-New York State eleven and was voted by teammates and coaches as the outstanding offensive player in the Cornell-Brown contest this fall.

THE old saying "The backs get the credit but the war is won in the trenches" certainly is true in Lambert's case who proved himself a solid combat veteran for the Big Red with his efforts this season.

A three-year letterman for the Circleville Tigers, Lambert performed for the Red and Black during the 1965-66-67 campaigns and was named All-South Central Ohio and gained state recognition for his efforts.

"I would have to say Lambert was the finest blocking tackle I've had the privilege of working with," Circleville coach Jim Lint stated, "and you couldn't beat him on the initial block."

Lambert, a senior at Cornell, is the son of Mrs. Louise Lambert, 1265 N. Court St.

Reds Trade Wilcox

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, who pulled off one of the major trades of the winter last week, sent right-handed pitcher Milt Wilcox to Cleveland today for outfielder Ted Uhlaender.

They now are only three short of the league record of 20 victories in a row, set last season by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Elsewhere in the NBA Sunday, Phoenix stretched its winning streak to seven, routing Golden State 120-87, and Seattle defeated Cleveland 99-91.

The Lakers, in handing Portland its 21st setback in 25 games, took an early 19-10 lead on the shooting of West and Gail Goodrich, who finished with 19 points, and never relinquished it. Wilt Chamberlain contributed 27 points and 17 rebounds for Los Angeles.

Pete Liske hit Kent Kramer with a five-yard pass in the final minute as the Eagles came from behind to ruin Detroit's NFC Central Division playoff aspirations. Moments before Liske's scoring pass, the Lions went ahead 20-16 on quarterback Greg Landry's five-yard run.

Jim Turner kicked a 33-yard field goal with two minutes left after giving the Broncos an early 3-0 advantage with a 34-yard boot. Denver's defense limited the Bears to 66 yards total offense and dumped quarterback Bobby Douglass nine times.

Rookie Tim Webster's 27-yard field goal as the final gun sounded hoisted the Packers into a tie after both teams scored touchdowns in the final seven minutes.

Frigid Vikings Drop Encounter To Grove City

Teays Valley got off to a poor first quarter and never was able to recover, dropping a 77-66 decision to Grove City Saturday night on the Greyhounds' court.

One basket and three free throws were all the Vikings could garner in the opening period as they trailed the Greyhounds, 13-5, after eight minutes of play.

Beginning to find the range in the second canto the Blue and Gold put 19 more points on the scoreboard but the Grove City quintet tallied 22 to take a 35-24 lead at halftime.

It was Grove City on top, 59-41, at the conclusion of the third frame and despite a Viking rally in the final stanza, which at one time narrowed the margin to six points, the Greyhounds held on for a 77-66 win.

STEVE Bumgarner held the hot hand for the Vikings with seven from the floor and eight from the charity stripe for a total of 22 points for the night's work.

Jeff Sheets added 16, Dave Chaffin had 10, Randy Nungster six, Jack Brinker five, Jim Pabst four, Jim Logsdon two and Jerry Sabine one for the Vikings.

Castle led the Grove City attack with 26 markers, Cahill had 11, DeWeese nine, Weygant and Petty had seven apiece. Gibson and Musselman each added four, Chaffin and Funk had three apiece, Jones two and White one for the winners.

Cold shooting was the Vikings undoing as they only hit 25 of 72 shots from the floor for a frigid 25 per cent.

They added 30 of 48 from the foul line for 63 per cent while Grove City converted 23 of 34 from the line for 68 per cent.

The Greyhounds hit on 27 of 75 attempts from the field for 36 per cent.

REBOUND honors went to Grove City with 53 and the Vikings pulled down 45. Jeff Sheets was tops for Teays Valley with 14 grabs from the boards.

In the matter of turnovers, it was an even deal with both teams misplaying the ball 16 times.

The Viking reserves also went down to defeat at the hands of the Greyhounds.

Teays Valley is now 1-2 for the season and will be at home with Franklin Heights Friday and travel to Logan Elm on Saturday.

Bob Allison Wins 200 In Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Allison, stock car racing's No. 2 money winner, was the only driver to profit from a rainy weekend in Texas.

That is, if you don't count a youthful newcomer from Mexico City named Juan Iquiere.

Allison, 34, won a 200-mile race for older-model Sportsman stock cars at Texas World Speedway on Saturday and added $3,200 to a bank account that already includes $1,231,170 from Grand National racing and $30,000 from short-track Sportsman competition.

Allison had a fifth-place start in the $90,000 Texas 500 for current model sedans that was scheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday.

But a weather front that deposited rain and snow on central Texas caused a one-week postponement of the race. It is now set for 1 p.m. Dec. 12.

Cleveland Browns Win Title; Stop Bengals, 31-27

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — First-year Coach Nick Skorich started making plans immediately to avoid a letdown now that Cleveland Browns clinched the American Football Conference's Central Division title with a 31-27 triumph over Cincinnati Sunday.

Houston lifted the Browns into the division title, the club's sixth in eight years, by upsetting second place Pittsburgh 29-3. Even if the Browns lose and the Steelers (5-7) win their remaining games, the Browns would win the title because of a better record within the division, 5-1.

Leroy Kelly scored two touchdowns and gained 127 yards in 23 carries and Bill Nelsen threw for 224 yards and two touchdown passes to lead the

Browns to the victory over the Bengals, now 4-8, who were hoping to keep a three-game winning streak and their playoff hopes alive.

The Browns took a 7-0 lead in the game when Cincinnati's Fred Willis fumbled the opening kickoff at his 18 and Ken Brown picked up the loose ball and ran it to the four. Leroy Kelly ran over from the one.

The Bengals came back on Horst Muhlmann's 46-yard field goal and a 72-yard, 11-play touchdown drive capped by Doug Dressler's four-yard run. Al Beauchamp then intercepted two of Nelsen's passes to set up Willis' nine yard scoring run and Muhlmann's 24-yard field goal to make it 20-7.

The Browns regained the lead, 21-20, when Nelsen completed a 53-yard touchdown pass to Frank Pitts in the third quarter.

Pitts, who escaped from defenders Lemar Parrish and Ken Riley at the 22, said, "Parrish had an interception, but I got my hand between his and snuck it away from him. I pulled down between his hands to get the ball."

"I had the ball, but it popped up and Pitts took it away," said Parrish.

The Bengals took the lead again at 27-21 when Essex Johnson streaked 86 yards down the sidelines after the Browns bunched up to stop a third down play.

"It was a finesse play," explained Brown. "We noticed some of their linemen have a tendency to move to the outside."

The Browns then drove 67 yards to the Bengals five, but had to settle for a 12-yard field goal by Don Cockcroft to cut the lead to 27-24.

Muhlmann missed a 52-yard field goal and the Browns then drove 80 yards for the winning touchdown as Nelsen completed five of six passes for 46 yards and Kelly ran 18 yards to set up his four yard scoring run.

"We scored too fast," said Nelsen. "I got scared because we had to give them the football back."

LE Stymied By Falcon Stall, 56-47

Held to a single field goal in the fourth quarter Logan Elm suffered its fourth consecutive defeat, losing 56-47 to visiting Franklin Heights (3-0) Saturday.

The Falcons' stalling tactics to break up the tight LE zone defense in the second half was the contributing factor to the low scoring tilt.

The Braves began the tilt with a man to man defense, but shifted to a zone in the second quarter after falling behind, 24-15 in the first period.

Nine turnovers in the initial eight minutes of play were committed by the Braves. In the second quarter Logan Elm managed to gain a point on the visitors and trailed 37-29 at halftime.

IN the third quarter Franklin Heights had trouble finding the range over Logan Elm's zone which had big men Bill McKnight, 6-6; Alex Jones, 6-2;

and Doug Barnett, 6-2, under the bucket, and guards Tom Sykes and Tim Justice out front.

The Braves were able to narrow the margin to five points and then the Franklin Heights coach called time out and the Falcons began their stalling game. Nearly five minutes of playing time were left in the third period.

And it was slow-down basketball for the next 13 minutes. The Braves managed to pull within two points, 44-42, with 1:20 to go in the third period but could never get any closer.

The score was 48-45 at the end of the third period. Nearly two minutes went by in the final frame before the Braves scored, a field goal by Tim Justice, and it was the last time they scored in the tilt.

The Falcons held the ball most of the final period, and their disciplined game was so successful they ignored several seemingly easy opportunities to score in order to retain possession of the ball. No points were scored in the game from 5:08 to 1:15 on the clock and only three field goals were converted in the entire fourth quarter.

The Braves began fouling to break the stall with 1:15 to go and the Falcons took advantage of the fouls to put the game on ice.

TOM Williams of Franklin Heights was the game's leading scorer with 20 points coming on seven field goals and six foul shots. Williams was seven for 12 from the field and six for six at the foul line.

Alex Jones and Tom Sykes, with 10 points each, led the Braves' offense.

Steve Fischer, getting his first starting assignment this season for the Braves, scored seven of his nine points in the first half and was the Braves' top rebounder at halftime. Fischer made four of even shots from the field and converted his only chance at the foul line.

Rounding out the Braves scoring, Doug Barnett tallied seven, Tim Justice five, Jeff Young four and Bill McKnight two.

McKnight was Logan Elm's leading rebounder with nine while Jones had eight. The Braves pulled down a total of 39 missed shots.

TOM Williams had 14 of the visitors' 30 rebounds.

From the field the Brave made 18 of 55 shots, a 32.7 per cent average, and at the foul line they made 11 of 16, a 68.7 average.

The Falcons made 23 of 58 field goal attempts, a 39.6 per cent average and 10 of 20 at the charity stripe for a 50 per cent average. Officials assessed 11 personal fouls against the visitors and 19 against LE.

The Brave's reserve team picked up its second win, a 66-56 decision over the little Falcons. It was the second win for the LE reserves who now have a 2-2 record. Terry Crumley scored 21 points, Jay Justice 14, Steve Sargent 11 and Scott Bower nine for the winners.

The next game for the Braves is Friday at Adena. Saturday they host Teays Valley.

CRAIG LAMBERT

Lambert Receives Grid Recognition

When a back sets a rushing record such as Ed Marinaro of Cornell University did this year, he has to have a lot of help and Marinaro had just that in the person of Circleville's Craig Lambert. Cornell's offensive tackle who continually opened gaping holes in the opposition's line for the Big Red back.

It was Lambert who provided the openings that made the record setting rushing mark possible.

well deserved recognition from all quarters.

He was named to the All-Ivy League team, gained a berth on the Associated Press All-Eastern second grid squad, an offensive tackle spot on the All-New York State eleven and was voted by teammates and coaches as the outstanding offensive player in the Cornell-Brown contest this fall.

THE old saying "The backs get the credit but the war is won in the trenches" certainly is true in Lambert's case who proved himself a solid combat veteran for the Big Red with his efforts this season.

A three-year letterman for the Circleville Tigers, Lambert performed for the Red and Black during the 1965-66-67 campaigns and was named All-South Central Ohio and gained state recognition for his efforts.

"I would have to say Lambert was the finest blocking tackle I've had the privilege of working with," Circleville coach Jim Lint stated, "and you couldn't beat him on the initial block."

Lambert, a senior at Cornell, is the son of Mrs. Louise Lambert, 1265 N. Court St.

REDS Trade Wilcox
CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, who pulled off one of the major trades of the winter last week, sent right-handed pitcher Milt Wilcox to Cleveland today for outfielder Ted Uhlaender.

The streaking Lakers, led by West and Happy Hairston with 20 points each, reeled off their 17th consecutive victory Sunday night, trouncing the Portland Trailblazers 123-107.

They now are only three short of the league record of 20 victories in a row, set last season by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Elsewhere in the NBA Sunday, Phoenix stretched its winning streak to seven, routing Golden State 120-87, and Seattle defeated Cleveland 99-91.

The Lakers, in handing Portland its 21st setback in 25 games, took an early 19-10 lead on the shooting of West and Gail Goodrich, who finished with 19 points, and never relinquished it. Wilt Chamberlain contributed 27 points and 17 rebounds for Los Angeles.

Pete Liske hit Kent Kramer with a five-yard pass in the final minute as the Eagles came from behind to ruin Detroit's NFC Central Division playoff aspirations. Moments before Liske's scoring pass, the Lions went ahead 20-16 on quarterback Greg Landry's five-yard run.

Jim Turner kicked a 23-yard field goal with two minutes left after giving the Broncos an early 3-0 advantage with a 34-yard boot. Denver's defense limited the Bears to 66 yards total offense and dumped quarterback Bobby Douglass nine times.

Rookie Tim Webster's 27-yard field goal as the final gun sounded hoisted the Packers into a tie after both teams scored touchdowns in the final seven minutes.

Burleson, North Carolina State Rips Georgia, 92-81

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tom McMillen, Maryland's highly touted 6-foot-11 center, has received a major share of the early-season publicity among college basketball's towering and talented sophomores, but he might have to make room for the biggest newcomer of them all—7-4 Tom Burleson of North Carolina State.

Burleson, the tallest player in the nation, erupted for 37 points Saturday night, leading the unranked Wolfpack to a 92-81 victory over Georgia, while McMillen scored 35 points as the sixth-rated Terrapins set a school scoring record in beating George Washington 117-96.

Meanwhile, top-ranked UCLA, seeking its sixth consecutive national championship, coasted to its second easy victory in a row, routing Iowa 106-72 as Henry Bibby set a career high with 32 points.

Robert McAdoo's 27 points, Dennis Wuyck's 21 and George Karl's 20 led second-ranked North Carolina to a 90-75 triumph over Pitt. Southern California, No. 3, whipped Santa Francisco 102-82 as Paul Westphal led the way with 31 points and 12 assists.

Fourth-ranked Marquette, behind Bob Lackey's 21 points and Marcus Washington's 20, trounced Bowling Green 84-64. Seven-foot Luke Witte's 21 points helped fifth-rated Ohio State top Oregon 68-57.

Houston, No. 7, edged Tennessee 67-65 despite a 28-point showing by the Volunteers' Mike Edwards. Long Beach State, rated eighth, used Ed Ratleff's 33 points to withstand Nevada-Las Vegas 83-72.

New York Rangers Beat Vancouver, 6-3

by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
New York's Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield, the highest scoring line in the National Hockey League, erupted for a goal apiece in a quick second-period flurry that enabled the Rangers to beat Vancouver 6-3 Sunday night and take a two-point lead over Montreal and Boston in the NHL's East Division.

A string of 30 consecutive points helped No. 9 Louisville crush Bellarmine 116-58, and 10th-ranked Kentucky ended the 28-game home court winning streak of 14th-rated Kansas, beating the Jayhawks 79-69.

Ernie Fleming's 25 points paced 11th-ranked Jacksonville to a 77-68 decision over East Carolina. Henry Wilmore pumped in 38 points, sparking No. 13 Michigan to a 90-69 victory over Western Michigan.

Penn. rated 15th, got 26 points from Bobby Morse, 23 from Phil Hankinson and 20 points, 14 rebounds and nine assists from Corky Calhoun, in trimming Navy 94-74. Harold Little's two free throws with 13 seconds remaining gave New Mexico a 78-76 upset victory over 16th-ranked New Mexico State.

St. John's, N.Y., No. 1, was sparked by Greg Cluess' 25 points in a 98-81 triumph over Vanderbilt. Villanova, the No. 18 team, rallied from a seven-point first-half deficit and defeated Detroit 83-64 as Chris Ford paced the offense with 26 points.

Brigham Young, rated 19th, won its Time Zone Tournament, edging St. Joseph's, Pa., with the help of Kresimir Cosic's 31 points, and 20th-ranked Oklahoma bowed to Illinois 70-65.

Utah State Tough Hurdle For Fifth-Rated Ohio State

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Fred Taylor says Utah State, the Buckeyes' basketball visitor tonight, will be the toughest hurdle of the young season for his fifth-ranked Ohio State squad.

"They're a good basketball team. They were very much up tempo last year and expect that this year, too," said Taylor, after the Buckeyes whacked visiting Oregon 68-57 Saturday night for a 2-0 start.

Miami, the Mid-American favorite, wasn't so fortunate against another Big Ten team, taking a 65-50 shiner at Indiana. Ohio University, Bowling Green and Kent State, three more MAC squads, were beaten too.

Steve Downing hit 16 points for Indiana before injuring his knee midway in the second half. Miami, 1-1, was led by Larry Garlock's 13 points.

Fourth-ranked Marquette whipped Bowling Green 94-64 with a scrambling press in the second half, despite 24 points from the Falcons' Dalynn Badenhop. Bowling Green is 0-2.

Northwestern, held to only one field goal in the first eight minutes, rallied to beat Ohio University 76-65. Barry Moran, who hit 32 points against Kentucky earlier in the week, was held to two points by the Bobcat defense before fouling out. Ohio, dropping to a 1-1 mark, was led by Bob Howell with 16 points.

Derek Dickey's basket with 1:28 to play forged Cincinnati an 80-78 lead in an 85-80 exhibition triumph over the Athletics in Action. Dickey scored 19 points and pulled down a game high 19 rebounds while mate Lloyd Batts poured in 26.

Akron hit 56 per cent of its floor shots, stalled the last 10 minutes of the first half to protect a lead and chopped down Kent State 53-39. Leonard Paul's 21 points led the upset.

St. Louis had built up a 67-47 lead with 6 1/2 minutes left, then held off a furious Dayton rally to post a 75-71 triumph. Led by reserve Pat Murnen, the Flyers whittled away steadily by forcing St. Louis turnovers with a man-to-man press but ran out of time.

In Ohio Conference action, Oberlin recorded its second straight win over Heidelberg 78-67. Marietta edged Mount Union 74-73 behind the 31-point performance of Rick Raden, and Baldwin-Wallace down a cold-shooting Kenyon team 61-57.

Rio Grande trimmed Malone 75-74 for its second Mid-Ohio Conference win against no losses.

Other games: Earlham, Ind. 65, Wittenberg 64; Findlay 79, Central State 70; Bill State 87, Otterbein 74; Washington and Jefferson, 76, Denison 75.

Rams Smash Saints; Ellison Sets Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Los Angeles running back Willie Ellison started things off in grand style against New Orleans Sunday.

The five-year veteran raced 80 yards for a touchdown early in the first quarter and then rushed 247 yards in 26 carries for a National Football League record.

"It took a lot of extra effort and stamina. It's the happiest day of my life," the 200-pound Ellison said after the Rams upended New Orleans 45-28.

Ellison's performance stole attention from a 105-yard kickoff return by Travis Williams and three touchdown tosses by Roman Gabriel.

He broke the standard of 243 yards set by Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo against the New York Jets on Dec. 8, 1963 in the American Football League and the mark of 237 yards established twice by former Cleveland standout Jim Brown.

"Just about everybody told me at halftime that I would get the record," he said. "The line did a tremendous job of blocking and Gabriel did a great job of selecting plays against the New Orleans defense."

In other contests Sunday, San Diego upset Minnesota 30-14,

New England stunned Miami 34-13, Philadelphia edged Detroit 23-20, Cleveland nipped Cincinnati 31-27, Atlanta defeated Oakland 24-13, Houston swamped Pittsburgh 29-3, Washington crushed the New York Giants 23-7, Denver downed Chicago 6-3, Green Bay and St. Louis battled to a 16-16 tie and Baltimore blanked Buffalo 24-0.

In Saturday's game, Dallas swarmed over the New York Jets 52-10.

The San Francisco 49ers entertained the Kansas City Chiefs in Monday night's nationally televised game.

The Dolphins' setback spoiled their bid to clinch the American Conference's East Division title and moved them into a showdown with the Colts.

Minnesota's unexpected loss stopped them from sewing up the National Conference's Central Division crown.

Quarterback John Hadl led his team 63 yards in seven plays to set up the go-ahead touchdown as the Chargers barreled from behind to reel off 20 points in the final quarter. With the Eagles' upset over the Lions, Minnesota could have secured Central Division laurels by winning.

Several Miami miscues and precision passing by rookie Jim Plunkett snapped the Dolphins' eight-game victory streak.

Mercury Morris took the opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown to give Miami an early lead, but Plunkett then rifled eight straight passes to set up a touchdown. Plunkett, who celebrated his 24th birthday Sunday, completed 16 of 23 passes for 223 yards.

Leroy Kelly plunged four yards with 1:48 remaining as the Browns garnered the AFC's Central Division title, which they will retain even if they lose their final two games.

Norm Bulaich's one-yard lunge capping a 78-yard march broke a scoreless tie in the third period and veteran Johnny Unitas then fired a five-yarder to Ray Perkins for his first scoring pass of the season.

The Falcons intercepted Darlye Lamonica twice and recovered three fumbles in handing the Raiders their second straight loss. Atlanta also suffered five turnovers but sealed the win after Oakland couldn't score after grabbing a fumble on the Atlanta four.

Washington snagged four interceptions in the first half and

Larry Brown scored twice while picking up 129 yards. New York's sole touchdown came when Otto Brown recovered a blocked punt in the end zone.

The Oilers' rigid defense turned three Terry Bradshaw interceptions into points as safety John Charles made his fourth and fifth interceptions and defensive tackle Leo Brooks pilfered another.

Pete Liske hit Kent Kramer with a five-yard pass in the final minute as the Eagles came from behind to ruin Detroit's NFC Central Division playoff aspirations. Moments before Liske's scoring pass, the Lions went ahead 20-16 on quarterback Greg Landry's five-yard run.

Jim Turner kicked a 23-yard field goal with two minutes left after giving the Broncos an early 3-0 advantage with a 34-yard boot. Denver's defense limited the Bears to 66 yards total offense and dumped quarterback Bobby Douglass nine times.

Rookie Tim Webster's 27-yard field goal as the final gun sounded hoisted the Packers into a tie after both teams scored touchdowns in the final seven minutes.

Frigid Vikings Drop Encounter To Grove City

Teays Valley got off to a poor first quarter and never was able to recover, dropping a 77-66 decision to Grove City Saturday night on the Greyhounds' court.

One basket and three free throws were all the Vikings could garner in the opening period as they trailed the Greyhounds, 13-5, after eight minutes of play.

Beginning to find the range in the second canto the Blue and Gold put 19 more points on the scoreboard but the Grove City quintet tallied 22 to take a 35-24 lead at halftime.

It was Grove City on top, 59-41, at the conclusion of the third frame and despite a Viking rally in the final stanza, which at one time narrowed the margin to six points, the Greyhounds held on for a 77-66 win.

STEVE Bumgarner held the hot hand for the Vikings with seven from the floor and eight from the charity stripe for a total of 22 points for the night's work.

Jeff Sheets added 16, Dave Chaffin had 10, Randy Nungster six, Jack Brinker five, Jim Pabst four, Jim Logsdon two and Jerry Sabine one for the Vikings.

Castle led the Grove City attack with 26 markers, Cahill had 11, DeWeese nine, Weygant and Petty had seven apiece, Gibson and Musselman each added four, Chaffin and Funk had three apiece, Jones two and White one for the winners.

Gold shooting was the Vikings undoing as they only hit 25 of 72 shots from the floor for a frigid 25 per cent.

They added 30 of 48 from the foul line for 63 per cent while Grove City converted 23 of 34 from the line for 68 per cent.

The Greyhounds hit on 27 of 75 attempts from the field for 36 per cent.

REBOUND honors went to Grove City with 53 and the Vikings pulled down 45. Jeff Sheets was tops for Teays Valley with 14 grabs from the boards.

In the matter of turnovers, it was an even deal with both teams misplaying the ball 16 times.

The Viking reserves also went down to defeat at the hands of the Greyhounds.

Teays Valley is now 1-2 for the season and will be at home with Franklin Heights Friday and travel to Logan Elm on Saturday.

Bob Allison Wins 200 In Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Allison, stock car racing's No. 2 money winner, was the only driver to profit from a rainy weekend in Texas.

That is, if you don't count a youthful newcomer from Mexico City named Juan Izquierdo.

Allison, 34, won a 200-mile race for older-model Sportsman stock cars at Texas World Speedway on Saturday and added $3,200 to a bank account that already includes $1,231,170 from Grand National racing and $30,000 from short-track Sportsman competition.

Allison had a fifth-place start in the $90,000 Texas 500 for current model sedans that was scheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday.

But a weather front that deposited rain and snow on central Texas caused a one-week postponement of the race. It is now set for 1 p.m. Dec. 12.

Who's Best On College Grid Scene?

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nebraska's 45-3 victory over Hawaii Saturday night virtually assured that the Cornhuskers and Alabama will be singing a national championship title song in the Orange Bowl on
New Year's Night and left
Michigan humming a not-sojaunty arrangement of California: Here I Come.

Do the unbeaten but fourth-ranked Wolverines have much of a shot at the No. 1 ranking, even if they trounce Stanford in
the Rose Bowl? Coach Bo
Schembechler says their chances are "not very good."
"We've accomplished all our goals in winning the Big Ten championship," Schembechler says. "We'd like to win the national championship, but I don't think we can. Even if Nebraska and Alabama tied in the Orange Bowl, I doubt we'd get it."

Besides the undeniable fact that 12-0 Nebraska is ranked first and 11-0 Alabama No. 2, there is another team—one-beat-ne Oklahoma—just ahead of Michigan.

The third-ranked Sooners did nothing to diminish their stature with a 58-14 walloping of Oklahoma State as the regular college football campaign came to a close.

Penn State wasn't so lucky.
The fifth-ranked Nittany Lions,
bound for the Cotton Bowl and a date with Texas, suffered a 31-11 humiliation at the hands of
Miami, Fla. 14-0 and San Diego
State gunned down North Texas
State 42-28.

Schembechler made another pitch for a national championship playoff, but admitted it wasn't very likely.

"Unless there's some sort of playoff," he said, "there's no way to determine who's No. 1, but we'd have to have a nine-
game schedule even with a four- or eight-team playoff. The 11th regular season game eliminated the playoff idea."

Jerry Tagge, the second team
All-American quarterback, sparked Nebraska's rout of Hawaii. He fired touchdown passes of 80 yards to Jerry List, 32 yards to Johnny Rodgers and 17 to Frosty Anderson and scored himself on a 12-yard run.

49ers, Chiefs Clash Tonight In NFL Action

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —
John Brodie and Len Dawson,
veteran quarterbacks whose teams are fighting for playoff berths, meet in tonight's crucial National Football League
game.
The nationally televised contest brings Brodie's San Francisco 49ers and Dawson's Kansas City Chiefs together for the first time.
The 49ers, 7-4-0, need a victory
to stay ahead of Los Angeles, 7-4-1 and winners Sunday
over New Orleans. Meanwhile,
Kansas City needs a victory to move ahead of Oakland in the AFC West. The Raiders, 7-3-2, lost to Atlanta Sunday and Kansas City is 7-3-1.
Brodie, who has thrown 21 interceptions this season compared to 10 all of last year, has taken much of the blame for the 49ers' four frustrating losses.
But Chiefs Coach Hank Stram
calls the 36-year-old passer, last year's Most Valuable Player in the NFL, "one of the great quarterbacks in the business."
And the 49ers' receiving team
of Gene Washington, Dick Witcher and Ted Kwalick has an edge in experience on the Chiefs' trio of starters, Stram says.
"But remember, I'm talking only of experience," the coach adds.
Otis Taylor, with 40 receptions for 881 yards, is one of the NFL's top pass catchers and the other Chiefs' wide receiver, rookie Elmo Wright, is starting to show the form that made him an All-American at the University of Houston.
The Chiefs have been off since Thanksgiving Day, when their defensive backfield was humiliated in a 32-21 loss to Detroit. Their pass defense is 12th in the AFC, but has come up with 21 interceptions.
San Francisco's defense
ranks second to Dallas' in the NFC. And the 49ers have outgained their opponents in three of their four losses this season.

Nicklaus Set For Disney, Money Wins

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Progolfs prestigious leading money-winner spot was scheduled to be settled today—one week
early—with Jack Nicklaus holding the inside track on Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer.

"I'm leading the tournament
going into the final round," Nicklaus said. "If I win, I'm going to be the leading money winner. If I don't win from this position, I don't deserve to be the leading money winner."

This was the situation today
heading into the final round of the rain-delayed Walt Disney
World Open Golf Tournament.
Trevino already has set a single-season money winning record with $229,777. But he hasn't been a factor in this tournament and is well back in the field at 213.
Nicklaus is second in money with $214,491, but leads the tournament—which offers a $30,000 first prize from a $150-
000 total purse—by a single stroke at 205.

Palmer, who at one time
shared the third-round lead, has $200,741 earnings and must win the tournament to have a chance at the money title. He's three strokes back at 208.

There's one more tournament
on the schedule, next week's Bahama Islands Open. But all three contenders let the Sunday afternoon deadline slip by without making an entry. None will play.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —
John Brodie and Len Dawson,
veteran quarterbacks whose
teams are fighting for playoff
berths, meet in tonight's cru-
game.

The nationally televised contest brings Brodie's San Francisco 49ers and Dawson's Kansas City Chiefs together for the first time.

The 49ers, 7-4-0, need a victory
to stay ahead of Los Angeles, 7-4-1 and winners Sunday
over New Orleans. Meanwhile,
Kansas City needs a victory to move ahead of Oakland in the AFC West. The Raiders, 7-3-2, lost to Atlanta Sunday and Kansas City is 7-3-1.

Brodie, who has thrown 21 interceptions this season compared to 10 all of last year, has taken much of the blame for the 49ers' four frustrating losses.

But Chiefs Coach Hank Stram
calls the 36-year-old passer, last year's Most Valuable Player in the NFL, "one of the great quarterbacks in the business."

And the 49ers' receiving team
of Gene Washington, Dick Witchee and Ted Kwalick has an edge in experience on the Chiefs' trio of starters, Stram
says.

"But remember, I'm talking only of experience," the coach
adds.

Otis Taylor, with 40 receptions for 861 yards, is one of the NFL's top pass catchers and the other Chiefs' wide receiver, rookie Elmo Wright, is starting
to show the form that made him an All-American at the University of Houston.

The Chiefs have been off
since Thanksgiving Day, when their defensive backfield was humiliated in a 32-21 loss to Detroit. Their pass defense is 12th
in the AFC, but has come up with 21 interceptions.

San Francisco's defense
ranks second to Dallas in the NFC. And the 49ers have outgained their opponents in three of their four losses this season.

Who's Best On College Grid Scene?

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Nebraska's 45-3 victory over Hawaii Saturday night virtually
assured that the Cornhuskers
and Alabama will be singing a national championship title
New Year's Night and left
Michigan humming a not-sojaunty arrangement of California, Here I Come.

Do the unbeaten but fourth-ranked Wolverines have much of a shot at the No. 1 ranking,
even if they trounce Stanford in
the Rose Bowl? Coach Bo
Schembechler says their chances are "not very good."

"We've accomplished all our goals in winning the Big Ten championship," Schembechler
says. "We'd like to win the national championship, but I don't think we can. Even if Nebraska and Alabama tied in the Orange Bowl, I doubt we'd get it."

Besides the undeniable fact that 12-0 Nebraska is ranked
first and 11-0 Alabama No. 2,
there is another team—one-beaten Oklahoma—just ahead of Michigan.

The third-ranked Sooners did nothing to diminish their status with a 58-14 walloping of Oklahoma State as the regular college football campaign came to a close.

Penn State wasn't so lucky.
The fifth-ranked Nittany Lions,
bound for the Cotton Bowl and
a date with Texas, suffered a 31-11 humiliation at the hands of
Miami, Fla. 14-0 and San Diego
State gunned down North Texas
State 42-28.

Schembechler made another
pitch for a national championship playoff, but admitted it wasn't very likely.

"Unless there's some sort of playoff," he said, "there's no
way to determine who's No. 1,
but we'd have to have a nine-
game schedule even with a four-or-eight-team playoff. The 11th regular season game eliminated the playoff idea."

Jerry Tagge, the second team
All-American quarterback,
sparked Nebraska's rout of Hawaii. He fired touchdown passes of 80 yards to Jerry
List, 32 yards to Johnny Rodgers and 17 to Frosty Anderson and scored himself on a 12-yard
run.

Nicklaus Set For Disney, Money Wins

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Pro
golf's prestigious leading money winning spot was scheduled to be settled today—one week
early—with Jack Nicklaus holding the inside track on Lee Tre-
vino and Arnold Palmer.

"I'm leading the tournament
going into the final round," Nicklaus said. "If I win, I'm going to be the leading money
winner. If I don't win from this position, I don't deserve to be
the leading money winner."

This was the situation today
heading into the final round of the rain-delayed Walt Disney
World Open Golf Tournament.

Trevino already has set a single-season money winning record with $229,777. But he hasn't been a factor in this tournament and is well back in the field at 213.

Nicklaus is second in money
with $214,491, but leads the
tournament—which offers a $30,000 first prize from a $150,- 000 total purse—by a single stroke at 205.

Palmer, who at one time
shared the third-round lead,
has $200,741 earnings and must win the tournament to have a chance at the money title. He's three strokes back at 208.

There's one more tournament
on the schedule, next week's Bahama Islands Open. But all
three contenders let the Sunday afternoon deadline slip by without making an entry. None will play.

Vocational School -- What Can It Offer Students?

Pickaway County citizens — those from the Circleville City, Westfall Local and Logan Elm Local School Districts — have been asked to support passage of a 1.7 mill operating levy to finance operation of a new vocational school which will be shared with students from Ross County School districts and Laurelville schools.

Vocational training opportunities are now a requirement for all school districts. But no individual district has the money to provide complete job training facilities for its students — that is why legislators recommend a joint venture into the program.

Having several school districts share the expense of vocational training for their students can provide a much broader program — many more classes and in many more subject areas, than one district could possibly afford, especially if only five or six students in that one school were interested in that particular program.

The Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Board has prepared more questions citizens often raise when discussing the new vocational school and its formation.

Q. What school districts are participating in the Pickaway-Ross County JVS?

A. The 12 participating school districts are:

Pickaway County — Circleville City, Logan Elm, Westfall.

Ross County — Adena, Bishop Flaget, Chillicothe City, Huntington, Paint Valley, Scioto Valley, Union Scioto, Zane Trace.

Hocking County — Laurelville.

Q. How was the Pickaway-Ross County Joint Vocational School District formed?

A. A proposal for such a district, containing the necessary information, was presented to the State Department of Education. After the state approved, the proposal was submitted to and approved by each of the Boards of Education above, the joint vocational district was then organized and a JVS Board of eleven members was appointed.

Q. Who operates the joint district?

A. The eleven members of the Board of Education of the Pickaway-Ross County Joint School District. The joint vocational school board members must be members of their home boards and are appointed by the home board. The term of office is for a maximum of three years.

Q. What is vocational education?

A. Vocational education is job training; it is a program of courses designed to equip students for employment in a specific trade or occupation. Students learn the job skills, technical knowledge, safety judgments, work habits and attitudes that are necessary for occupations requiring no formal training beyond high school.

Q. What is the need?

A. Approximately 60 to 65 percent of the high school graduates in Ross and Pickaway County do not go to college or to other additional formal education. Since there is little demand in today's economy for completely unskilled labor, there is a very serious need for job training in high school in our area.

W. What is a joint vocational high school?

A. A joint vocational high ties common to all known mammalian cancer virus particles and they have been observed coming from human cancer cells.

"We think this is the best candidate so far detected to be the so-called human C type (cancer) virus," McAllister said in a briefing for science writers at which the discovery was revealed.

In the new experiment, millions of the human cancer cells are being grown. The virus particles emerge from the cells into the surrounding fluid, which is poured off. The work is being conducted at several laboratories around the country with NCI coordination.

The biochemical is a unique fingerprint of the virus presence.

Huebner said 7,500 gallons of this fluid must be treated to obtain one gram—a twenty-eighth of an ounce—of the biochemical, which is called GS-1 antigen.

These few drops will be injected into guinea pigs and rats. The test animals' bodies will begin manufacturing antibodies, other biochemicals that attempt to repel the invading antigen.

The antibodies will be isolated and used to test a variety of human cancer cells.

If the antibodies react with the human cancer cells—if they show the presence of GS-1 antigen even though virus particles can't be seen—scientists will have strong evidence they are truly dealing with a human cancer virus.

Once the researchers are convinced the cancer is of human origin, they will try to see if it causes normal cells to become cancerous and, if so, how.

school, also called a JVS or Jointure, is a specialized school for the purpose of vocational training that is formed by the joining together of several city, county and village school districts. The Pickaway-Ross County JVS will be a specialized job training center where students and adults from the area can receive training in some 24 different occupational courses.

Q. Why a jointure?

A. No single school district in the area, including Chillicothe, has either the resources or the student enrollment to provide even a minimum vocational program of its own. Job training for modern business and industry requires much expensive equipment. By joining together, local school districts can provide a much broader program more economically than any one district could hope to provide on its own.

Q. What is the difference between technical education and vocational education?

A. Vocational education is job training at the beginning level; it prepares students to enter a specific job category; for example, to become an office secretary, an auto body repairman, a beautician, etc. It is a program for the 11th and 12th grades of high school.

Technical education is post high school training and is more advanced than vocational education. Examples of technical education programs are those which would prepare a student to be a dental technician or an engineering aide.

Q. What courses would be offered by the Pickaway-Ross County Vocational School?

A. The proposed school would offer 24 different courses in five broad vocational areas:

1. AGRICULTURE — Ag Business, Ag Production, Horticulture - Forestry, Ag Equipment and Mechanics.

2. BUSINESS AND OFFICE EDUCATION — Entry Business Data Processing and Computer, Accounting - Computing Clerk, Cooperative Office Practice, Senior Intensive Business, Office Duplicator Operator, Clerical Services.

3. DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION — Work-study program in sales, merchandising and distribution.

4. HOME ECONOMICS AND HEALTH — Child Care Assistants and Aides, Commercial Food Services, Home and Community Service Aides.

5. TRADE AND INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION — Automotive Body Repair, Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Cosmetology, Drafting, Electricity, Machine Shop, Printing, Sheet Metal-Welding, Occupational Work Experience.

More questions about construction and operation of the JVS will appear Tuesday.

OEA Condemns State Board President, On Student Teacher Rules

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The annual three-day convention of the Ohio Education Association ended on a strident note over the weekend with charges that the state Department of Education has failed to enforce even minimum standards and regulations regarding student teachers.

On a motion from the floor, delegates ordered the OEA to study and document the "failure of the state department for not enforcing the minimum existing standards, regulations or laws relating to certification, student teacher preparation, and the misuse of student teachers and educational aides."

One delegate accused the department of being "progressively and grossly derelict" in its enforcement practices. Another charged there had been widespread neglect in the proper supervision of education students when they do their practice teaching in schools.

In other action over the course of the convention:

—Delegates called on the association to initiate a program to support federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination based on sex.

—Local associations through-

—A motion died without floor consideration calling for closing Ohio's schools after the Christmas holidays because of the failure of the 109th General Assembly to enact a budget-tax bill for the 1971-73 biennium.

—A motion of censure was passed against the Logan, Northridge (Licking County), Lexington (Richland County), and Columbus Grove (Putnam County) boards of education for refusing to dismiss certified OEA delegates from school duties to attend the convention.

—Delegates agreed to hold next year's meeting in Cincinnati. Conventions have been held regularly in Columbus since 1961.

Vandals Strike Over Weekend In Uptown Canton

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Canton was troubled by more vandalism attributed to racial tension over the weekend.

Eight business places had windows smashed, and three others were firebombed Saturday night. Damage in the firebombings was reported to be light.

The city has been troubled by a series of disturbances for the past week in the wake of the killing of Thomas F. Jackson, 26, by an agent of the Stark County Metropolitan Narcotics Squad. Jackson, a Negro, was killed as the agent tried to arrest him on a narcotics charge.

The Saturday night vandalism apparently was touched off by the arrest of two Negroes accused by police of trying to burglarize a clothing store on East Tuscarawas street in downtown Canton. The firebombings and window breakage occurred in the same general area, police said.

President, Trudeau Set Meet Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau arrives at the White House today to lead off President Nixon's summit sessions with allied chiefs in advance of his trips to Peking and Moscow.

Economic difficulties head the prospective agenda, with Canada—America's largest trading partner—pressing for an end to the 10-per-cent import surtax Nixon imposed in his emergency measures last August.

In a broader way, both Nixon and Trudeau were portrayed as wanting face-to-face talks to range over major international issues at a time of far-reaching changes on the world scene.

The theme of checking course with close friends amid a shifting international pattern runs through Nixon's unprecedented pace of separate summit parleys over the span of a month.

Next week Nixon flies to the Azores to see France's Georges Pompidou. The week after, it's Britain's Edward Heath in Bermuda. Then comes West Germany's Willy Brandt, at Key Biscayne, followed by Japan's Eisaku Sato in San Clemente Jan. 6-7.

The wide-ranging impact of broadening dealings with the Soviets and of opening of U.S. contacts with Red China are on the agenda for all. So is the trade-and-monetary crisis.

Even as Nixon prepared for the Trudeau meeting, he was being kept abreast of developments in the world's newest hot spot, the Asian subcontinent where India and Pakistan are at war.

Trudeau dealt himself in on Nixon's summit by asking to see the President—a bid the White House quickly accepted. The two meet late this afternoon and this evening, with the Canadian slated to return to Ottawa Tuesday.

Sisters Killed In Auto Crash

IRWIN, Pa. (AP) — Two young sisters, one nearly nine months pregnant, were killed in a Pennsylvania Turnpike crash, which police said injured seven other persons.

Killed in the two-car accident Saturday were Donna Kay Emerich, 23, of Fairhope, Pa., and Pamela Denise Day, 18, of Ravenna, Ohio, who police said was expecting a child in two weeks.

The sisters were among six passengers in a car driven by Henry Day, 24, husband of the pregnant woman.

Pickaway County citizens — those from the Circleville City, Westfall Local and Logan Elm Local School Districts — have been asked to support passage of a 1.7 mill operating levy to finance operation of a new vocational school which will be shared by students from Ross County School districts and Laurelville schools.

Vocational training opportunities are now a requirement for all school districts. But no individual district has the money to provide complete job training facilities for its students — that is why legislators recommend a joint venture into the program.

Having several school districts share the expense of vocational training for their students can provide a much broader program — many more classes and in many more subject areas, than one district could possibly afford, especially if only five or six students in that one school were interested in that particular program.

The Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Board has prepared more questions citizens often raise when discussing the new vocational school and its formation.

Q. What school districts are participating in the Pickaway-Ross County JVS?

A. The 12 participating school districts are:

Pickaway County — Circleville City, Logan Elm, Westfall.

Hocking County — Laurelville.

Q. How was the Pickaway-Ross County Joint Vocational School District formed?

A. A proposal for such a district, containing the necessary information, was presented to the State Department of Education. After the state approved, the proposal was submitted to and approved by each of the Boards of Education above, the joint vocational district was then organized and a JVS Board of eleven members was appointed.

Q. Who operates the joint district?

A. The eleven members of the Board of Education of the Pickaway-Ross County Joint School District. The joint vocational school board members must be members of their home boards and are appointed by the home board. The term of office is for a maximum of three years.

Q. What is vocational education?

A. Vocational education is job training; it is a program of courses designed to equip students for employment in a specific trade or occupation.

Students learn the job skills, technical knowledge, safety judgments, work habits and attitudes that are necessary for occupations requiring no formal training beyond high school.

Q. What is the need?

A. Approximately 60 to 65 per cent of the high school graduates in Ross and Pickaway County do not go to college or to other additional formal education. Since there is little demand in today's economy for completely unskilled labor, there is a very serious need for job training in high school in our area.

W. What is a joint vocational high school?

A. A joint vocational high

ties common to all known mammalian cancer virus particles and they have been observed coming from human cancer cells.

"We think this is the best candidate so far detected to be the so-called human C type (cancer) virus," McAllister said in a briefing for science writers at which the discovery was revealed.

In the new experiment, millions of the human cancer cells are being grown. The virus particles emerge from the cells into the surrounding fluid, which is poured off. The work is being conducted at several laboratories around the country with NCI coordination.

The billions upon billions of virus particles in the fluid are being treated to remove a biochemical manufactured by the virus.

The biochemical is a unique fingerprint of the virus presence.

Huebner said 7,500 gallons of this fluid must be treated to obtain one gram—a twenty-eighth of an ounce—of the biochemical, which is called GS-1 antigen.

These few drops will be injected into guinea pigs and rats. The test animals' bodies will begin manufacturing antibodies, other biochemicals that attempt to repel the invading antigen.

The antibodies will be isolated and used to test a variety of human cancer cells.

If the antibodies react with the human cancer cells—if they show the presence of GS-1 antigen even though virus particles can't be seen—scientists will have strong evidence they are truly dealing with a human cancer virus.

Once the researchers are convinced the cancer is of human origin, they will try to see if it causes normal cells to become cancerous and, if so, how.

school, also called a JVS or Jointure, is a specialized school for the purpose of vocational training that is formed by the joining together of several city, county and village school districts. The Pickaway-Ross County JVS will be a specialized job training center where students and adults from the area can receive training in some 24 different occupational courses.

Q. Why a jointure?

A. No single school district in the area, including Chillicothe, has either the resources or the student enrollment to provide even a minimum vocational program of its own. Job training for modern business and industry requires much expensive equipment. By joining together, local school districts can provide a much broader program more economically than any one district could hope to provide on its own.

Q. What is the difference between technical education and vocational education?

A. Vocational education is job training at the beginning level; it prepares students to enter a specific job category; for example, to become an office secretary, an auto body repairman, a beautician, etc. It is a program for the 11th and 12th grades of high school.

Technical education is post high school training and is more advanced than vocational education. Examples of technical education programs are those which would prepare a student to be a dental technician or an engineering aide.

Q. What courses would be offered by the Pickaway-Ross County Vocational School?

A. The proposed school would offer 24 different courses in five broad vocational areas:

1. AGRICULTURE — Ag Business, Ag Production, Horticulture - Forestry, Ag Equipment and Mechanics.

2. BUSINESS AND OFFICE EDUCATION — Entry Business Data Processing and Computer, Accounting - Computing Clerk, Cooperative Office Practice, Senior Intensive Business, Office Duplicator Operator, Clerical Services.

3. DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION — Work-study program in sales, merchandising and distribution.

4. HOME ECONOMICS AND HEALTH — Child Care Assistants and Aides, Commercial Food Services, Home and Community Service Aides.

5. TRADE AND INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION — Automotive Body Repair, Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Cosmetology, Drafting, Electricity, Machine Shop, Printing, Sheet Metal Welding, Occupational Work Experience.

More questions about construction and operation of the JVS will appear Tuesday.

OEA Condemns State Board President, Trudeau Set Meet Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The annual three-day convention of the Ohio Education Association ended on a strident note over the weekend with charges that the state Department of Education has failed to enforce even minimum standards and regulations regarding student teachers.

On a motion from the floor, delegates ordered the OEA to study and document the "failure of the state department for not enforcing the minimum existing standards, regulations or laws relating to certification, student teacher preparation, and the misuse of student teachers and educational aides."

One delegate accused the department of being "progressively and grossly derelict" in its enforcement practices. Another charged there had been widespread neglect in the proper supervision of education students when they do their practice teaching in schools.

In other action over the course of the convention:

—Delegates called on the association to initiate a program to support federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination based on sex.

—Local associations through-

—A motion died without floor consideration calling for closing Ohio's schools after the Christmas holidays because of the failure of the 109th General Assembly to enact a budget-tax bill for the 1971-73 biennium.

—A motion of censure was passed against the Logan, Northridge (Licking County), Lexington (Richland County), and Columbus Grove (Putnam County) boards of education for refusing to dismiss certified OEA delegates from school duties to attend the convention.

—Delegates agreed to hold next year's meeting in Cincinnati. Conventions have been held regularly in Columbus since 1961.

Vandals Strike Over Weekend In Uptown Canton

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Canton was troubled by more vandalism attributed to racial tension over the weekend.

Eight business places had windows smashed, and three others were firebombed Saturday night. Damage in the firebombings was reported to be light.

The city has been troubled by a series of disturbances for the past week in the wake of the killing of Thomas F. Jackson, 26, by an agent of the Stark County Metropolitan Narcotics Squad. Jackson, a Negro, was killed as the agent tried to arrest him on a narcotics charge.

The Saturday night vandalism apparently was touched off by the arrest of two Negroes accused by police of trying to burglarize a clothing store on East Tuscarawas street in downtown Canton. The firebombings and window breakage occurred in the same general area, police said.

President, Trudeau Set Meet Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau arrives at the White House today to lead off President Nixon's summit sessions with allied chiefs in advance of his trips to Peking and Moscow.

Economic difficulties head the prospective agenda, with Canada—America's largest trading partner—pressing for an end to the 10-per-cent import surtax Nixon imposed in his emergency measures last August.

In a broader way, both Nixon and Trudeau were portrayed as wanting face-to-face talks to range over major international issues at a time of far-reaching changes on the world scene.

The theme of checking course with close friends amid a shifting international pattern runs through Nixon's unprecedented pace of separate summit parleys over the span of a month.

Next week Nixon flies to the Azores to see France's Georges Pompidou. The week after, it's Britain's Edward Heath in Bermuda. Then comes West Germany's Willy Brandt, at Key Biscayne, followed by Japan's Eisaku Sato in San Clemente Jan. 6-7.

The wide-ranging impact of broadening dealings with the Soviets and of opening of U.S. contacts with Red China are on the agenda for all. So is the trade-and-monetary crisis.

Even as Nixon prepared for the Trudeau meeting, he was being kept abreast of developments in the world's newest hot spot, the Asian subcontinent where India and Pakistan are at war.

Trudeau dealt himself in on Nixon's summit by asking to see the President—a bid the White House quickly accepted. The two meet late this afternoon and this evening, with the Canadian slated to return to Ottawa Tuesday.

Sisters Killed In Auto Crash

IRWIN, Pa. (AP) — Two young sisters, one nearly nine months pregnant, were killed in a Pennsylvania Turnpike crash, which police said injured seven other persons.

Killed in the two-car accident Saturday were Donna Kay Emerich, 23, of Fairhope, Pa., and Pamela Denise Day, 18, of Ravenna, Ohio, who police said was expecting a child in two weeks.

The sisters were among six passengers in a car driven by Henry Day, 24, husband of the pregnant woman.
